Mr. President:

I am directed by the Governor to deliver to the Senate a communication in writing, with accompanying documents.

By direction of the President, the annual message of His Excellency, the Governor, was read, and is as follows:
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Atlanta, Ga., October 25, 1893.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

Since your adjournment, something less than one year ago, the people of this State, together with the people of our common country, have suffered from the effects of an unusual and long continued financial stringency.

If such money panics can occur when our harvests are abundant, and no legitimate causes are easily apparent, it behooves the representatives of the people to inquire into the conditions that make them possible.

Under such conditions there must be in our midst some power, somewhere, able to paralyze and destroy, at will, the common interest and the common good.

Such dangerous influence, if it exist, should not only be inquired into and removed, but it should be absolutely destroyed. No conditions of class can justify the growth of a power within the government greater than the people who make the government.

Without reference to the matters which have, as yet, claimed the attention of our National Congress, in extraordinary session, as being beyond the pale of State authority, I deem it proper to say to you that, in my candid judgment, the most, if not all the ills that affect the country to-day, come to us, directly or indirectly, from the dangerous and pernicious policy of the general government known as protection. The time has come in the history of our people when this policy must be rebuked, as contrary to the spirit of free government, and not authorized by the organic law that made the American system.

Adopted at the beginning for revenue, it advanced to the guardianship of our infant industries, until it has finally grown into a monster power, producing combinations, trusts and monopolies that override the rights of the common people, while they dare dictate the policy of the government in their own interest and against the interest of the people.

It is gratifying to know that the political party, now in power, stands committed to repeal its resultant, unconstitutional tax which destroys the equality of right among citizens and builds a system of centralized government.

Not content with denying the rights of the individual in trade, the general government has advanced to the further denial of the rights of the States in their use of money as established before the adoption of the Constitution of the United States and fully recognized, authorized and guaranteed in that fundamental law of our system.

It is equally gratifying to know that the present Federal Congress is pledged to repeal this protected monopoly of money also, and restore to the States the opportunity for growth and development commensurate with their resources and their unrestrained energy and will.

No tax was ever imposed by the Federal government upon the issues of State banks until the necessities of war demanded the revenue. This tax was levied then, first, as upon manufacturers, for revenue, and, finally, for protection to our national infant financial industries by prohibiting the rights of the States in money.

The authority extended by the national government to certain citizens to invest their money in government bonds; deposit them with the United States Treasurer; receive a bank charter and have issued ninety per cent. of their face value in bills for circulation, was not enough to guarantee the success of a money monopoly, if State banks of issue were tolerated by the general government. Therefore, State banks of issue needed to be suppressed and a monopoly created for national currency under protection by the government. The tax was levied, the rights of State banks to issue bills under State authority was destroyed and protected money monopoly now threatens, more than all else, the liberties of the people.

Little if any revenue was ever collected on State issue, and yet the majority of the Supreme Court of the United States held that it was not within their jurisdiction to protect State banks against this wholesale slaughter, saying further, such banks must look alone to Congress for relief.

Congress is now in session, and to Congress the States must appeal for an equal chance against protected monopoly to prevent uncalled for panics and the consequent distress of the people.

I recommend, therefore, in anticipation of such action by Congress as is guaranteed by the democratic platform, such legislation as will charter State banks of issue, upon such safe conditions, without Federal interference or control, as will secure their credit beyond question and furnish to the bill-holders absolute and perfect protection.

When this is done our people will get money at a fair rate of interest when they need it, and the States will furnish an elastic currency that will expand and contract as our business needs demand; prices of products will not be reduced because of scarcity of money, and congestion and contraction will be an impossibility under our financial system.

By independent State action, solvent county, state and municipal, as well as national bonds and cash resources can be used with perfect security for the redemption of State bank bills. In this way our financial basis will be broadened and, with the protection of the government removed from monopolies, whether in manufactures or money, we will have sound and abundant money for the State and prosperity and content for the citizen.

TAX RETURNS.

For many successive years the property of this State has steadily advanced in value, until the past year.

In 1892 the property of all kinds returned for taxation in this State amounted to $463,753,534. The returns for the past year amount, in the aggregate, to $452,000,000, making a decrease amounting to about $12,000,000, the first decrease in tax values since the war.

How much of this falling off can be attributed to the severe financial crisis through which we have passed, and how much to the repeal of the law providing for the equalization of tax returns, I leave for your judgment to determine. The condition is worthy of your consideration, certainly, when it is known that not only the tax values have fallen off $12,000,000, but that the acreage of the State has shrunk 554,623 acres—not quite one thousand square miles.

It is quite evident that our system of taxation is at fault. Justice to the citizen demands a remedy.

The expenses of the government remaining the same, the larger the tax returns the less the rate; the greater the lack of uniformity in the returns, the greater the inequality of burden imposed by the rate.

The State is growing in its charities, its institutions for development and its educational interests. To meet these demands we must have, not only a corresponding increase of material wealth, but a just and uniform return of the property to be taxed.

A full and fair return of property means a low tax rate. This reform the people will gladly indorse.
The falling off in tax values, just noted, will reduce the amount contemplated by your appropriation to the school fund of the State something more than $85,000. If the schools are continued five months, as heretofore, an additional appropriation will be necessary.

I earnestly urge upon the General Assembly some provision by which the teachers in our common schools shall be paid quarterly, as are all other State officials.

The salaries received by the teachers are not commensurate with the service they render. Delayed payment compels a heavy discount on the scrip furnished them, neither creditable to the State nor just to a most worthy class of our citizens.

The teachers in our schools are, in no sense, inferior in their rights to other officers in the State, and they should not be compelled to carry a tax in the shape of a discount to save the people from a burden very much less, because of a much more general distribution.

If no better plan for payment can be devised by the General Assembly, I would, respectfully, recommend the levy of a special tax for one year to raise the amount necessary to meet the salaries of the teachers in our common schools, even though it should require a double tax for the year of the levy. It is far better to distribute this burden among the people who receive the benefit of the service than confine it to the teachers who have fully earned the money the State denies them.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTES.

The small beginning, in normal training provided by the General Assembly, through teachers institutes, has been greatly helpful for the improvement of the schools. With some changes in the law, that will readily suggest themselves, after our past experience in its operation, the institutes can be even more effective than now.

Through the liberality of Dr. J. L. M. Curry, the efficient agent for the distribution of the Peabody fund, this feature in our public school system was inaugurated and exclusively maintained until recent action by our Legislature.

This generous aid should receive, at the hands of the General Assembly, suitable recognition, not only in proper expression but through corresponding appropriation, to increase and enlarge the interests the generosity of the Peabody board inaugurated.

When this shall have been accomplished the State will, even then, have made but little advance in normal training—aiding only those who are already teachers. Our system will always remain inefficient until, with proper appropriation for equipment and maintenance, the General Assembly shall establish one or more normal schools, wisely and well organized, for the training and preparation of those who expect to become teachers.

The Constitution of the State provides: "There shall be a thorough system of common schools for the education of children in the elementary branches of an English education."

A thorough system cannot be built up through incompetent teachers. Normal training is the only means by which we can secure competent teachers. Georgia is far behind her sister States in this feature of her system.

The normal school I regard as the most important factor now lacking in our system, and I ask for this recommendation your earnest consideration.
If there is any principle or policy in our system of government that authorizes or requires the appropriation of money for the intellectual and manual training of the children of the State to prepare them for citizenship, I am compelled to believe that the same reasons demand similar care for the moral reform of those children who, because of neglect or vicious environments, become a nuisance to the community and a burden to the taxpayers of the State.

A distinguished statesman has said: "All the vagabonds in the world begin in neglected children." If this statement be true, it authorizes us to believe that all the criminals in Georgia have come from an abused childhood.

Some place, other than the penitentiary or county chain gang, should be provided for the incarceration of children and some misdemeanor convicts. The disgrace of confinement and the wicked influences which surround the child in the penitentiary prevent reformation. The object of imprisonment should be reform as well as confinement at hard labor. The State owes it to the young criminal to place him in contact with circumstances that will tend to soften, rather than make him more obdurate and vicious. The State has an interest in every child she rears. Every good citizen made out of what was material for a vicious bad citizen is an immense advantage to the State as a self-governing body. The same thing is true of the State as a social body.

When it is considered that several hundred such citizens can be made from such material every year, the effect upon the population of the State is easily seen. As such citizens are producers of wealth, the money investment for their reformation would be profitable to the State.

The General Assembly, in all the past years of our history, at each of its sessions has given great consideration to the enactment of laws for the punishment of crime, but we have never yet recorded a law of practical value for the reformation of a criminal.

Without such influences, our penitentiary and convict camps are but training schools for criminals.

With two thousand two hundred convicts in our penitentiary and about the same number in our county chain gangs, we stand appalled at the prospect of the deluge of crime to be turned upon the State when the limited service of these criminals expires.

In our State prison there are 2,168 convicts confined. Of these, 375, or twelve per cent., are below the age of 18. Of these latter, 141 are below the age of 16; 80 below the age of 15; 40 below the age of 14; 27 below the age of 13; 15 below the age of 12; two 11 years old, and one at the tender age of 10. Thirty-six per cent. of the convicts in the penitentiary are below the age of 20.

Below the age of ten our law hardly recognizes the responsibility of a child, and sometimes tolerates, if it does not excuse, his crime. With a degree of indulgence we leave him unrestrained, a menace to society until he attains, somewhat, to years of discretion and perfected rascality, or confine him with criminals to be made an outlaw and a fiend.

The alarming increase in all kinds of crime throughout the State demands the thoughtful study of those whose duty it is to guard the public weal by suitable legislation, not only for restraint, but for reform.

If the State owes no duty to its children, born and reared in poverty and crime, it does owe to society the best protection against their lawlessness and violence. The best protection must be reached, not so much through the punishment of the criminal as the prevention of crime.

The last United States census reports forty-five thousand criminals confined in the prisons of the States. Georgia furnishes five per cent. of this number. The same census reports fifteen thousand young convicts in reformatories for correction. Of this number our State does not report one. Our young convicts are thrust into chain gangs for criminal training, and, subsequently, transferred to the penitentiary for further development and education in crime.

It is for the General Assembly to say whether this stain shall longer remain upon the State.

The policy I am commending for your consideration is not an untried experiment. For many years it has been a part of the penal system of many of the States, with good results to the peace and good order of society, and an elevated standard of citizenship.

The records of a majority of the leading reformatories of the United States show that more than seventy per cent. of those turned out from juvenile reformatories became law-abiding citizens.

The cost to the State is not to be considered when we regard our duty to the unfortunate or seek the protection of society against lawlessness and vice. If the direct tax necessary to maintain such an institution is an argument against its establishment, it may be well to estimate the tax levied upon the counties and the State for the capture of criminals and the punishment of crime. One criminal in this State cost one county ten thousand dollars before he was brought to punishment. Another criminal cost another county twenty thousand dollars. At this rate of expenditure the saving would soon establish a reformatory that would greatly reduce the crime, and at the same time save the honor of the State.

COUNTY CHAIN GANGS.

I respectfully urge upon the General Assembly consideration of the special message, sent in at your first session, calling attention to the management and control of our county chain gangs.
Upon investigation, you will find this system subject to all the criticisms that have been justly made by the General Assembly, from time to time, upon our penitentiary system, and, yet, entirely without control and supervision by the State.

These convicts are hired or leased to private parties for the purpose of personal gain. So are convicts in our penitentiary. In the one case, convicts are turned over to the mercy of those who have bought their muscle, without knowledge, by the State, as to their term of service, physical and moral condition or general treatment. In the other, the State provides proper and diligent officers who look to the proper enforcement of the contract, the record of the term, the discharge from service, the medical care of the prisoner, and the designation of the proper party to administer punishment. In the penitentiary, the convict is the ward, in some sense, of the State. In the chain gang he is at the mercy of those who buy his time and strength to make money, with no designated power to protect his rights, care for his morals, or defend his person.

In some instances these convicts are hired by the same parties who hire penitentiary convicts, and they are, therefore, practically, confined in our penitentiary, when the judgment of the court did not so determine and their offences did not so warrant. This injustice, however, need not be mentioned in the presence of the greater wrong done them in the denial of care and protection by the State during their term of service.

These convicts should receive from the State the same superintendence as is given convicts hired to the lessees of our penitentiary.

In my judgment the General Assembly cannot afford to delay longer the consideration due prisoners confined in our county chain gangs.
During my term of office I have considered and disposed of 440 applications for executive clemency. Of these 182 have been passed upon since your first session. Many of these cases have come to me at the suggestion of the officers of court, and pardon has been granted because the minimum punishment fixed by the law, in the opinion of the court, was too severe for the offence committed. It is not so much the severity of punishment that deters crime as the certainty. If the penalty, in many cases, can be reduced and the courts authorized to give a speedy and prompt hearing, the people will have greater regard for the majesty of the law and crime will be reduced.

I earnestly recommend, therefore, the revision of the penal laws of the State with the view of adjusting the penalty to the nature and character of the offence committed.

The reports submitted by the Principal Keeper and Physician to the penitentiary will give you full information as to the condition of the convicts, and the management of the camps.

It is due to say that I have had no trouble in the enforcement of the law and the rules regulating the control of prisoners. The slightest irregularity is always promptly and fully remedied as soon as the attention of the lessees is called thereto. I find the supervision and control by the lessees exercised with due and full regard to the terms of the contract with the State.

Under the law, I have required payment for escapes occurring from lack of necessary diligence and care. Some of the fines imposed, I have been asked to reduce, because of subsequent capture, after the expiration of the sixty days allowed by law. This I have declined to do because I know of no such authority given the Executive.

It may be worthy of your consideration to say that after the fine required has been paid there can be no further inducement for the lessees to offer a reward for the capture of the escaped convict, and, without a reward, not many desperate criminals will be returned to the penitentiary.

OUR JURY SYSTEM.

The constitution of this State declares: "The General Assembly shall provide by law for the selection of the most intelligent and upright men to serve as grand jurors, and intelligent and upright men to serve as traverse jurors; nevertheless, the grand jurors shall be competent to serve as traverse jurors."

The General Assembly, by appropriate legislation, provides for such selection by competent jury commissioners and for the service of the persons selected for grand jurors on the traverse jury. It could not well be asked that any improvement should be made on a system which confines jury service to citizens who are both upright and intelligent, selected by fair-minded men from the body of citizens at large.

It is known, however, that in the counties in which the larger cities are located complaints of unsatisfactory service have been made.

If the fault is not in the law, it must exist in its application or the restrictions which limit the number from which selections are to be made.

I am clearly of the opinion that the cause of complaint exists in the great number of exemptions from this paramount public duty, which, from time to time have been granted.

The effect of such exemptions, in certain localities, is to place double service on those citizens not so favored, and sometimes force the determination of great and important rights to be had by the superficial and ill-advised judgment of the least competent of the selection.

No higher or more important duty devolves upon the citizen. It should bear equally and alike on all. Public service, heretofore, rewarded by such exemptions should be compensated in some other way, that the right of jury trial may be preserved in the spirit of fairness and impartiality and with the intelligence and purity which will command our highest regard.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Since your adjournment we have been confronted with conditions imperatively demanding the enactment of some such legislation as I had the honor to commend at your first session, looking to the establishment of a Board of Health for the State.

More than once, during the past three years, I have been compelled to call upon the Federal authorities to suppress epidemic and contagious diseases. To do this it becomes necessary to surrender, absolutely, all State control into the hands of the general government, for the time being, in opposition to our ideas of local self-control.

Whilst I have no complaint to make against the Federal authorities assuming control at my request, I do not think the policy in harmony with the principles of our government, nor does it show proper care and protection for citizens due them, primarily, by the State.

Our conditions are such as make us liable to the spread of epidemics among the people, attended with great loss of life and property. These contingencies occur when the Executive is powerless either to relieve the infected districts or to protect the State against the spread of disease.

I respectfully recommend and urge the establishment of a State Board of Health constituted with such authority as will furnish the needed relief for the people under the conditions indicated.

In this connection I desire to express my full appreciation of the skill and efficiency of the medical officers in charge of the yellow fever sufferers at Brunswick and Jesup by order of the general government. Without the aid thus rendered, untold calamity would have come to the State, not only in the loss of life and property, but in the consternation and alarm that would have seized upon the people.

Taxpayers in the infected districts—the counties of Glynn and Wayne—deserve the fullest sympathy from the State, and I ask for them the most indulgent consideration by the General Assembly consistent with the public good.

WESTERN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD.

In the transfer of the State's property in the Western and Atlantic Railroad from the former lessees to the control of the present lessees, I found that the rights of the State had not been distinctly defined in many instances and that danger of final loss was probable because of encroachments that would not be recognized as such, at the expiration of the present lease, when the property must be returned to the State.

An investigation soon disclosed that the State had large interests that needed to be properly defined and established, and the further fact that the work demanded would be far more than could be discharged by the Attorney-General in time to fully secure the State's claims.

I, therefore, recommended the temporary appointment of a special attorney for this property, whose duties it should be to report at this session of the General Assembly the condition of all the property owned by the State along the line of road. Under the authority given by your action at your first session, I appointed Hon. W. A. Little, special attorney for this property. I have the honor now to submit to you his report.

The investigation has required a great amount of labor and research. Much of the property had been so long neglected that the State’s claim was not recognized, and innocent purchasers, in some instances, have come to know that they have no title to the property they have heretofore held as their own.

The service rendered the State by this investigation is invaluable, and the report herewith transmitted makes a showing greatly creditable to the painstaking and efficient work of the special attorney and a statement of conditions gratifying to the people of the State.

A careful reading of the report will disclose the fact that it has not been possible to determine, finally, all the State’s interests in the time allowed. I would recommend the special attorney continued in his investigations until all the claims in dispute are fully and finally determined.

I have recently made a personal examination into the physical condition of the road, and I am pleased to report the property greatly improved and well kept. The State’s interests have been committed to good hands.

I am in receipt of a letter from the adjutant-general of the state of Ohio in which I am informed that the legislature of Ohio, by joint resolution, desire to “ascertain whether or not the railroad engine known as “General” could in any way be secured by the State of Ohio as a monument to the bravery of the men known as the “Andrews raiders” in the late war.”

This application I refer to the General Assembly, recommending that it will be far more in accord with the spirit of our people to retain the engine for the State and place it in some conspicuous place on the Capitol grounds “as a monument to the bravery of the Georgia heroes” who rescued “General” from the hands of the raiders.
The following report, under the terms of the lease, is submitted for your inspection.

ATLANTA, GA., October 1, 1893.

To His Excellency, Hon. W. J. Northen, Governor of the State of Georgia:

Sir—In accordance with the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the State of Georgia, approved November 12, 1889, providing for the lease of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, the Annual Report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893, is herewith submitted:

The old car-shops and coach-sheds at Atlanta have been replaced by a substantial steel-covered car-shop, 47 by 285 feet, adjoining the round-house, and the machine-shop, begun last year, has been completed. New depots have been erected at Kingston, Kennesaw and Bolton, and new coal-chutes at Rogers.

Accurate surveys and maps of the State's property in Georgia and Tennessee have been made, corner-posts erected, and the State's attorneys furnished with these maps, also advised of all encroachments on the property.

Respectfully

J. W Thomas,
President.
GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.

Under authority given at your first session, the Geological Board directed the publication of the report of the State Geologist, Dr. Spencer.

The fund appropriated for this purpose was not sufficient to cover the necessary expense for publication by something less than five hundred dollars.

It was highly important that the report should be published under the supervision of the author, and as Dr. Spencer was about to retire from the work, the board deemed best to give the report to the public printer and rely upon the General Assembly to meet the additional expense by suitable appropriation.

If the report had been delayed until the necessary legislation could be had, it is highly probable the work would have been lost to the State.

In the opinion of the board the interests of the State demanded a new organization of the survey.

On the 22d of March last the officers in charge of the survey were requested to send in their resignations, and on the 15th of May following, Professor W S. Yeates was appointed to the position of State Geologist. As soon thereafter as applications could be properly considered, in conference with Professor Yeates, Messrs. S. W McCallie and F P King were appointed assistants to the State Geologist. Reference to the accompanying report, submitted by the State Geologist, will give an outline of the survey as now directed by the department.

STATE LIBRARY.

Quite a number of valuable books belonging to the State library are not in place because of lack of space and suitable shelving.
I respectfully recommend such action as will put these volumes in position for use and reference as well as preservation and care.

Another matter demanding the immediate attention of the General Assembly, in this department, is the purchasing of a certain number of the Codes of 1882 for distribution amongst those officers of the State who are required by law to be furnished with a Code and whose Codes have been worn out in the use of the past ten years.

Daily demands are being made upon the State Librarian for new Codes in place of those worn out. I am informed that there are about 100 Codes in the hands of the publishers; in the State Library there are only 200. The law requires 350 Codes to be kept on hand in the State library for the use of the General Assembly and officers of the different State departments. The 200 now on hand are subject to be drawn upon to be issued to the justices and notaries of new districts as they are formed, so that this supply is being reduced constantly.

Whilst it is possible that this General Assembly will take steps to publish a new Code, it is not to be expected that the Code can be published and put into the hands of the officers of the State much short of eighteen months or two years, as it is probable that the Commission appointed to revise the new Code, if any steps are taken in that direction, will be required to report to the legislature of 1894 before the revision can be adopted. Some six or eight months will, doubtless, be required to publish the new Code after its adoption.

There are no Form Books on hand to be issued to new districts or to supply those which have been issued and worn out in service. I would, therefore, respectfully recommend that 100 Codes and 300 Form Books, if so many can be obtained, be purchased at once for the use of the officers of the State.
Section 228(h) of the Code, referring to the publication of reports, is in the following language: "Whenever the Librarian of the State shall report to the Governor that there are not more than twenty-five copies of any electrotyped volumes on hand, the Governor shall forthwith have five hundred additional copies struck off, and shall draw his warrant upon the printing fund for the expense thus incurred."

In accordance with this law the Librarian has duly reported to me that the first ten volumes published by the State, to-wit: volumes 66 to 75, inclusive, have reached the point indicated in the statute, and the 76th is so near it as to make it proper to include that volume in this recommendation. The statute requires the publication of 500 copies, but there being no funds on hand appropriated for that purpose, I can only proceed to lay the matter before the General Assembly for such action as to them may seem best.

After consultation with the State Librarian, it is my judgment that there is no necessity for the publication of more than one hundred copies of each of the eleven volumes, from the 66th to the 76th, inclusive. I am satisfied that one hundred copies of each can be published for an amount not to exceed the sum of $1,300. Should the General Assembly decide to publish 200, that number would not cost more that $2,100. I respectfully recommend that the legislature make the necessary appropriation based on this calculation, for the publication of one hundred or two hundred volumes.

I would further recommend that the statute above cited be repealed, and that a provision be made in its stead, that whenever the necessity shall arise, the Governor be authorized to make such statement to the General Assembly as may be necessary in the premises. I would further recommend that the General Assembly fix the price at which these volumes shall be sold, so that the expense of printing and a small margin over shall be secured to the State to cover the incidental expense of postage.

Dr. Robert Battey, a distinguished physician, resident in this State, has made a most valuable contribution to the State library in the donation of a large number of costly volumes, selected from his private medical library.

These books will form a nucleus for a large collection of medical works of value, as a desirable addition to our State library.

The thanks of the General Assembly are due Dr. Battey.

The following letter, received from Dr. Battey, conveys his donation to the State:

Gynecological Infirmary,
Rome, Ga., September 18, 1898.

Hon. W J. Northen, Governor:

In the well nigh half century which I have devoted to the study of the science of medicine and its collateral branches, a study now drawing to a close, I have been much impressed with the lack of some large reference library anywhere within my reach. With such assistance I can but feel that my own single life would have borne more and better fruit in the service of our people. We ought to have in Georgia such a library—the medical men of Georgia need it; the courts and the lawyers of Georgia need it; the legislature of Georgia needs it. It ought to be placed in a separate alcove in the State library at the capitol, where it would be easily accessible to all and properly cared for. I believe that this can all be done at a very small expenditure of the public funds.

Through your excellency as Governor I offer to the State my private library, consisting of several hundred, perhaps a thousand volumes, to be delivered in Atlanta free of cost, for a beginning of the proposed medical alcove in the state library, and will add to it, as my life may be prolonged, other similar contribution. I believe that other physicians in Georgia, and especially those retired from active practice, will aid the collection by donations from year to year until this department of the State library will have grown to be of great public utility. I am, Governor,

Respectfully your obedient servant,

ROBERT BATTEY.

I herewith transmit the reports submitted by the departments of State, the officers in charge of the State's institutions and the financial reports required by law.

W. J. NORTHEN.

The following communication was received from His Excellency, the Governor, through Mr. Warren, his Secretary, to-wit:

Mr. President:

I am directed by the Governor to deliver to the Senate a communication in writing, with accompanying document:

By direction of the President, the message of the Governor was read, and is as follows, viz.:
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
ATLANTA, GA., December 24, 1892.

To the Senate:

I respectfully return to the Senate, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 28, To define the elementary branches of an English education as used in paragraph 1, section 1, article VIII of the Constitution of this State; the pupils entitled to receive the benefit of the State fund, the examination of applicants for teachers' places in the common schools of this State.

This bill is contradictory in its provisions, and its policy would be very hurtful to our public school system. The bill names the studies that shall be taught in the schools, and then authorizes license to be issued to teachers who, upon examination, are found to be incompetent to teach them.

If the children in a community are entitled, under the law, to receive instruction in treatises on the Constitution of Georgia, and the Constitution of the United States, history, physiology and hygiene, the teachers licensed to give instruction in the public schools ought certainly to be competent to teach these branches, otherwise the pupils will, by law, be denied the right the law itself has guaranteed to them.

It is bad policy to license teachers who are known to be incompetent to give instruction in a large part of the studies authorized to be taught.

W J. Northen.

By resolution of Mr. Blalock, the Hon. John L. McLucas, of Fayette county, was invited to a seat in the Senate during his stay in the city.
The Senate having disposed of all business on the desk of the Secretary, adjourned, on motion, until 10 o'clock A. M. tomorrow.

The next business being the election of a Judge of Atlanta Circuit, to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. Marshall J. Clarke, the Hon. J. H. Lumpkin was put in nomination therefor. The balloting was proceeded with and resulted in the Hon. J. H. Lumpkin receiving the whole number of votes cast, the same being 159.

He was therefore declared duly elected Judge of the Atlanta Circuit to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. Marshall J. Clarke.

Mr. President:

Your committee have performed the duties assigned to them, and beg to submit the accompanying report.

FELIX CORPUT, Chairman.

Mr. President:

Under Senate resolution No. 19, during the session of 1892, the undersigned were appointed a committee to sit during vacation and to examine the books and vouchers in the offices of the Treasurer and Comptroller-General of this State, as provided in section 186 of the Code, and to make their report to this General Assembly.

Under authority of this resolution, your committee met at the capitol in Atlanta on the 19th day of June last, and devoted themselves to this work from that time to the 28th of June. Our examination was careful, thorough and systematic. In the Treasurer's office we examined carefully and minutely all the books kept by that officer, showing the amounts received, disbursements made, for what purpose made, and by what authority. We also footed up the various amounts on said books under the various heads and items in order to verify the same. Nothing was taken for granted, and no calculation or result, as stated on such books, was accepted by this committee as correct until the same had been verified by us. Commencing with the first day of October, 1891, we have examined every voucher for every item of expenditure and disbursement made by the Treasurer from that date until the 1st day of June, 1893, and we have compared such vouchers with the books of the Treasurer and with his printed report submitted to this General Assembly for the year ending September 30, 1892. We also counted the cash in the Treasurer's office on the 19th day of June last. We first ascertained from the Comptroller-General the amount of cash that, according to his books, should be in the Treasury, which was $1,100,533.17. This amount we found to be correct. We found in the vault in currency $13,000.00; in silver $1,956.90; cash in till, $885.38; coupons, $56,928.70; amount in Depositories, $1,008,835.60; advanced to civil establishment, $18,602.53; incidental expense account, $323.82. We also examined the bonds deposited in said Treasury by the foreign insurance companies doing business in this State, as required by law, and we find that the report of the Treasurer as to the names of the various companies, the amount of bonds deposited, and the character of the bonds mentioned in such report, is correct. We also find $500,000.00 Georgia 3½ per cent. registered bonds deposited by the State Road lessees, as required by law. We also examined the assets of the State as mentioned in said report. We find 186 shares of Georgia Railroad and Banking Company stock, and 440 shares Southern and Atlantic Telegraphing Company's stock.

We have examined the Comptroller's books, the certificates of the Treasurer given him for the amounts paid his office as required by law, and have checked every certificate and voucher from the 1st day of October, 1891, up to the 19th day of June, 1893, and we find that the books of the Comptroller-General and the certificates, when checked together, correspond in every instance. We examined the reports of the various Tax-Collectors of the State, and their digests showing the amount of tax paid by the various counties in the State, and the record of special taxes made by each county in the State, and find these correct, in every particular.

In the examination of the Treasurer’s office, we wrote to the various depositories, and had the various amounts reported by the Treasurer to be deposited in said banks verified.

In our examination of these offices, we have been afforded every facility by the officers and their assistants, each and every one of whom manifested skill, ability and efficiency in the discharge of their duties. The books are not only neat, but they are systematic, comprehensible and complete.

It is our duty and our pleasure to say that the Treasurer and Comptroller-General of the State are officers whose efficiency, faithfulness, careful administration and devotion to the best interests of the State, entitle them to the endorsement and approval of this committee, the Legislature and the people, as officers faithful in the discharge of every lawful duty. We believe the State most fortunate in having in her service these excellent gentlemen.

Respectfully submitted.

FELIX CORPUT,
A. P. PERSONS,
Committee of the Senate.

GEORGE STAPLETON,
R. U. THOMASON,

The bill not having received a constitutional majority, was lost.

On motion of Mr. Persons, the action of the Senate thereon was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

The following message was received from the House, through Mr. Hardin, the Clerk thereof:

Mr. President:

The House has passed by the requisite constitutional majority the following House bills, to-wit:

A bill to amend section 2783(a) of the Code of 1882.

Also, a bill to fix the lien in certain cases of the liability of railroad companies for the wages due to their employes, and for other purposes.

The following communication was received from his Excellency, the Governor, through Mr. Warren, his Secretary, to-wit:
Mr. President:

I am directed by the Governor to deliver to the Senate a communication in writing, with an accompany document.

The message of the Governor was taken up and read. It is as follows:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
ATLANTA, GA., November 3, 1893.

To the General Assembly:

During the past summer a convention of Judges of the Superior Court was held in the city of Atlanta for the purpose of considering and suggesting to the General Assembly the propriety of making certain changes in the penal laws of the State. A committee on legislation was appointed by said convention, and the suggestions of that committee are embodied in the communication which I now have the honor to transmit:

MARIETTA, GA., October 21, 1893.

W. J. Northen, Governor, Atlanta, Ga.:

Dear Sir—As a member of the committee on legislation from the convention of Superior Court Judges, I have been instructed to furnish you with the following suggestions, which have the approval of our committee:

Section 3893 of the Code, in reference to depositions, should be so changed as to apply the same to counties of ten thousand inhabitants, instead of counties having cities of ten thousand inhabitants. Let it provide further, that any party shall have the right to compel a witness to attend on the trial on proper showing to the judge, if it should appear that the ends of justice will be subserved thereby. Section 3899 should be so changed as to make the fees reasonable, and this method of getting evidence practical. It would seem that the commissioner should have the fees of the clerk of the superior court for issuing subpoenas, and he ought to be allowed so much for taking the evidence. As it stands, the fees for taking the evidence is two dollars for each witness, and fifty cents for certifying. This would be burdensome in many cases.

The law should be so changed as to allow a defendant in a criminal case to testify in his own behalf on his trial; also the husband or wife to be a competent witness for each other, and such evidence to be weighed by the jury. In such cases the State to have the right of cross-examination, and the failure of a defendant to testify not to be argued against him. This is the law in the most of the States of this Union; it is the rule in the United States courts.

There should be a revision of the Code by a committee of three elected by the Legislature. This revision should see to it that the Code contains all the statutes of force, and leaves out what are not of force. The Code of the city of Savannah and all references to text-books and references to reports other than our own Supreme Court Reports should be expunged. References to our own Supreme Court Reports should be comprehensive and full. If the matter should make a cumbersome book in one volume, it should be printed in two volumes—a civil code and a criminal code. This work should be indexed differently from the present Code. Got up in this way, the State would own the book; and it should be sold to her citizens at the cost of publication. Taken in hand in a business way, it need not cost a great deal of money.

There should be in each judicial circuit an official reporter paid by the State, whose duty it shall be to take an exact stenographic report of the evidence and proceedings in every case, except the argument of counsel. Let him be paid a certain salary for making such stenographic report and writing out the evidence in felony cases, and then, in addition, let him have a certain reasonable compensation for furnishing a transcript of his report, which shall be paid for by the parties desiring the same. The law upon the subject of the pay of stenographers is now mooted, and it is necessary that something be done about it. The plan outlined would be much better, and would not cost more than the present system.

Our committee is of the opinion that there should be such legislation as will require the more speedy determination of cases that go to the Supreme Court. This has worked well in criminal cases, and no reason appears why it should not apply to civil cases. As much as a year frequently intervenes from the trial of a case in the court below until it is brought back for further consideration. In our opinion, all cases that reach that court ten days before final adjournment of the term should be heard and disposed of.

I have been directed by our committee to prepare bills to submit through you to the Legislature, which shall outline our ideas herein referred to.

Very truly yours,

Geo. F. Gober.

Dahlonega, Ga., October 14, 1893.

To His Excellency, W. J. Northen, Governor, etc., Atlanta, Georgia:

In accordance with section 4663 of the Code, I have the honor to submit, for your consideration, certain suggestions in reference to defects in our penal laws.

In the first place, I think there ought to be a careful revision of the entire penal code, with a view to a more just and equal adjustment of penalties according to the gravity of the crimes to be punished. This should be followed by the publication of the penal code separate from the civil code.
Failing this, various sections of the penal code, as they now stand, need speedy amendment and modification, so as to produce a nearer approach to equality of punishment for the same grades of crime.

Section 4390. Under this section robbery by open force is punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, from four to twenty years, without reference to the value of the thing taken. Thus the taking of a pocket knife or an article of less value by open force, would subject the taker to imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than four years. This is too much in some cases.

Sec. 4391. Punishes robbery by intimidation with imprisonment in the penitentiary from two to five years. In many instances robbery by intimidation is just as heinous as robbery by open force. If the punishment for each class was made, say one to twenty years in the penitentiary, the courts could then adjust the penalty according to the circumstances of each case.

Sec. 4406. Larceny of Papers.—Under this section, the penalty is confinement in the penitentiary from one to four years. If one steals a promissory note for one dollar, he is guilty of a felony; while, under other sections, he may steal forty-nine dollars and be guilty of only a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4408. Plundering from Wrecked Vessels.—The penalty under this section is confinement in the penitentiary from one to five years, without regard to the value of the article or thing taken.

Sec. 4414. Larceny from the House.—This section covers a large part of all the larcenies committed, and makes the amount or value of the thing taken an important element of the crime. If the amount is less than fifty dollars, such larceny is a misdemeanor, if over fifty dollars a felony. In illustration of the confusion which grows out of treating value of the stolen articles as an element of the crime in this section and dropping it out of other sections, I refer you to a case to be found in 86 Georgia Reports, page 339.

Sec. 4417 Breaking and Entering with the Intent to Steal, etc.—This is a misdemeanor even though the stealing occurs, and without reference to the amount stolen, so that if one was to steal $100,000, under this section he would be guilty of only a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4422. Bailees.—The penalty under this section is penitentiary from two to seven years, without reference to value. Thus a common carrier, often a boy under age, converts an article in transitu worth twenty-five cents, and he is guilty of a felony, while elsewhere he might steal $49 and be guilty only of a misdemeanor.

The sections cited are sufficient to show the necessity for a careful revision of all the sections in reference to larcenies.

Sec. 4342. Mayhem.—The putting out of an eye of one who has two eyes is only a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4343. The putting out of the eye of one who has but one eye is a felony, and punishable by imprisonment for life in the penitentiary.

Here is an instance of the same act, so far as the perpetrator is concerned, being treated in one case as a crime of the lowest grade, and in another as a crime of almost the highest grade. I tried a case recently in Habersham where a fiendish woman, under the guise of friendship, obtained access to the presence of an innocent young married woman and threw vitriol in her face, putting out one of her eyes and disfiguring her for life. She was convicted, but could only be punished as for a misdemeanor. She should have gone to the penitentiary. I leave to your wisdom and discretion the recommending of proper remedies for the defects suggested.

I am, very respectfully,

C. J. Wellborn,
J. S. C. N. E. C.

T. A. Robinson, Chairman pro tem.

Mr. Persons, chairman of the Committee on Banks, submitted the following report:

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Banks have had under consideration the following Senate bill, which they instruct me to report with the recommendation that the same do pass:

Report of Special Committee on Georgia Normal and Industrial College:

Mr. President:

Your committee, appointed to visit the Georgia Normal and Industrial College, during the commencement exercises of the Institute, closing on Tuesday, the 13th day of June, 1893, beg leave to submit the following report:

The following members of the committee, to-wit: E. L. Moore, of the 6th District, W D. Smith, of the 41st District, and F Chambers, of the 21st District, were present during the exercises of the 12th and 13th, and so far as the time at our command permitted us, visited and witnessed the exercises in each department of the school.

We found ninety-eight counties of the State were represented in the school, furnishing an enrollment of three hundred and sixty-nine pupils, filling the college to its utmost capacity; and that many applicants were turned away from its doors for want of room.

The college building is a handsome structure, built of brick, four stories high, and admirably arranged for the successful conduct of such a school, being supplied throughout with water and gas, heated by steam and supplied with proper ventilation. The want of a large assembly room was most apparent, and it is to be hoped that some suitable arrangement can be made by which it can be enlarged.

The college boarding house consists of two distinct houses, both built of brick, one being known as the "Old Mansion" and the new one as the "Annex." Both are neatly kept, which attests the watchful care of the Matron in charge and the industry of the young lady pupils. The number of pupils accommodated with board and lodging in these two houses your committee failed to ascertain; but it may not be out of place for your committee to suggest to the Board of Directors and Board of Visitors the importance of their vigilant and watchful care in protecting the boarding pupils from over-crowded rooms.

The course of studies are found to be divided into four departments, to-wit: The Normal, Industrial, Collegiate and Domestic, each a co-ordinate part of the whole school, forming a complete system, which we have no hesitancy in commending to the people of the State as being as comprehensive and thorough a system as experience and the short length of time it has been in operation could suggest. We believe that no investment or appropriation of the public funds of the State will yield to her people so rich a reward as the appropriations made by the General Assembly to this institution, in sending out to the various sections of the State the girls so carefully and thoroughly trained and educated, both in mind and heart, as will go out from this college.
Especially do we invite the attention of this General Assembly, and the people of the State, to the Normal Department of the Institute, designed for the preparation and training of the girls for the profession of teachers. There are now in Georgia about twenty-eight hundred white female teachers. They are fast taking the place of male teachers in the cities, and their superiority as teachers, or their natural fitness for the profession, will soon place them in charge of nearly all the small public schools in the rural sections, if the education of the masses is desirable. The beneficent results of the work done in this department cannot be over-estimated.

We already see the great need of qualified and competent teachers throughout the State.

The money annually appropriated does not yield its full return by reason of this deficiency in our school system. The great need is better qualified and more competent teachers in our public schools, and until this need is supplied the system will, to the extent of this deficiency, be a failure. Hence the importance of fostering this department of the institution.

The standard of excellence in this department should be maintained so high as that a pupil receiving a diploma therefrom, will be entitled to the confidence of the public as a teacher in the schools of the country.

In concluding this report we most cheerfully bear testimony to the good work that is being done by each member of the faculty, and heartily commend the school to the people of the State as one well worthy of their support and patronage.

Respectfully submitted.

F. L. Moore,
W. D. Smith,
F. Chambers,
Chairman Committee.
By Mr. Chambers—

To the General Assembly:

Your committee, appointed to ascertain and report what amount of money, if any, is necessary to be raised for the quarterly payment of teachers of public schools, respectfully submit the following:

After consultation with the Treasurer of the State and examination of his books, we have arrived at the conclusion that there would be ample funds, properly belonging to the school fund, to make them quarterly payments, but for the fact that this fund is encroached upon each year by the payment therefrom of the appropriations to the widows and disabled Confederate soldiers, which amounts to about the sum of $460,000.

The taxes for the payment of these appropriations to the widows and disabled soldiers do not reach the Treasury until December of each year, but heretofore they have been paid eight or nine months previous thereto. We find that the condition of the Treasury is such as will authorize the payment of salaries to teachers and also of the appropriations to widows and disabled Confederate soldiers, if each of these payments is made quarterly. If so paid, it will be unnecessary to raise any additional revenue by issuing bonds or by direct taxation.

We therefore recommend the passage of a bill authorizing the payment of public school teachers' salaries quarterly, that is to say, one-fourth of the fund to be paid the first day of April, one-fourth on the first day of July, one-fourth on the first day of October, and one-fourth on the first day of January in each year, and that the appropriation to witnesses and disabled soldiers be likewise paid quarterly on said dates in each year.

Respectfully submitted.

W W Thomas,
T. A. Sinquefield,
C. Pearce,
I. P Bloodworth,
A. O. Bacon,
Chairman House Committee.
C. A. Robbe,
Sam'l B. Hatcher,
F. Chambers,
Chairman Senate Committee.

Mr. Hackett, chairman on the part of the Senate of the Joint Committee appointed under Joint Resolution No. 35 to ascertain if there are any violations of the convict lease, submits the following report:

Mr. President:

The Joint Committee appointed under Joint Resolution No. 35, to ascertain if there are any violations of the convict lease, instruct me to report that, after a careful investigation, the committee fail to find that there exists any fact which, in the opinion of the committee, constitutes a violation of the terms of the convict lease.

Respectfully submitted.

F. Chambers,
M. P. Reese,
A. T. Hackett,
Chairman Senate Committee.

Mr. Smith, of the 15th District, submitted the following report:
Mr. President:

The Committee of the House and Senate on the Georgia School for the Deaf, acting as a joint committee, have visited that institution, and instruct me to make the following report:

We have examined the buildings, grounds and appurtenances of the school, as well as the educational operations of the same, together with the books and accounts.

We found the buildings and grounds in a satisfactory condition.

The accounts were critically examined and found correct, and all moneys appropriated for maintenance, improvements and repairs have been judiciously and properly used.

The care and instruction of the pupils have been such as to challenge the admiration as well as the approval of the committee.

Your committee, however, are in full accord with the Board of Trustees and the Principal, in the belief that much good can be done the unfortunate class under their charge by teaching them other handicrafts than it is now possible to teach them.

The present outfit enables them to teach nothing beyond hand work in shoemaking to the boys, and housework, sewing, cutting and making clothing to the girls.

An outfit in the way of building and machinery for wood, iron or other styles of work, would very greatly increase the facilities of the school for teaching useful arts to its beneficiaries, thereby enabling them to become selfsupporting in after life.

We, therefore, recommend the appropriation of $5,500.00 for the purpose of providing a building, machinery and other necessary appliances to accomplish this very desirable purpose.

We think it very desirable that the buildings should be heated by steam and lighted by electricity, so soon as the condition of our people and of the State Treasury will warrant the same; but we are reluctant to recommend the necessary appropriations at this time, hoping that future Legislatures may do so whenever the same can prudently be done.

Respectfully submitted.

T. J. Smith, Chairman.

The following communication was received from His Excellency, the Governor, through Mr. Warren, his Secretary, to-wit:

Mr. President:

I am directed by the Governor to deliver to the Senate a sealed communication, to which he respectfully invites the consideration of your honorable body in executive session.

Mr. Robinson, chairman of the Special Committee to examine and report upon the obstructions to the free passage of fish in the Savannah river, submitted a majority and minority report, both of which were read, laid on the table and 100 copies of each ordered to be printed for the use of the Senate.

The majority report is as follows:

WHEREAS, There was a joint resolution introduced in the Senate November 9th, 1893, to appoint a committee of two from the Senate, and three from the House, to go at once to Augusta and to look into the obstructions, if any, across the Savannah river, and report back immediately to the Senate and the House.

WHEREAS, We, the committee, appointed by the Senate and the House, do make the following report:

After reaching Augusta, we at once proceeded several miles up the Savannah river, where we found a twelve-foot solid rock dam, running from the said banks of the Savannah River, from the Georgia side of the said banks of the river to the South Carolina side.

WHEREAS, There was a convention held at Buford, S. C., in the year 1787, between the two States, declaring that said Savannah river should be kept open, free, and unobstructed.
WHEREAS, Said treaty set forth the following facts:
That not any obstruction whatever should be placed in the Savannah river that would in anywise obstruct the free passage of fish, and

WHEREAS, We, the committee, do find that the river is obstructed by a twelve-foot dam, that reaches from the Georgia side of the Savannah river, to the South Carolina side.

We, the committee, do recommend that the Governor at once appoint the committee of two to act with the Fish Commissioner of the State, and it shall be the duty of said committee to go to Augusta, or near Augusta on the Savannah river, and if they should find any obstructions in the Savannah river, in conflict with the laws of this State, and a treaty between the two States, impeding the free passage of fish in said river, that the said committee do at once take such steps as they themselves and the Attorney-General can agree upon, to have said obstructions removed, or relieved in such a way, as may do equity to all parties at interest in the said two States.

We, the said committee, do further recommend that the Governor be authorized to draw his warrant on the Treasurer of the State to pay the expenses of said committee, and what he should deem proper and just to pay said committee for their labor.

WHEREAS, We, the committee, find this matter of great importance, and we, the committee of the Senate and the House, urge the Senate and the House to adopt this report, and that the Governor appoint at once his committee.

The committee recommend that this joint report of the Senate and House be adopted with the following amendment, to-wit:
That the said committee be further authorized to investigate the river from Augusta to Savannah, and if they should find any obstructions in the way of wire-nets, or any other obstructions that prevent the free passage of fish, that they proceed at once to have the same removed.

Respectfully submitted.

SMITH, of Gwinnett,
Chairman of the House Committee.

M. T. PERKINS,
T. A. ROBINSON,
Chairman of the Senate Committee.

J. P. GHOUSTON.

The minority report is as follows:

Mr. Cumming, member of the Committee on the part of the House appointed under the joint resolution to investigate and report upon the obstructions in the Savannah river, submits the following minority report:

Mr. President:

The Joint Committee appointed under joint resolution of the Senate and House to investigate and report upon alleged obstructions to the passage of fish in the Savannah river, proceeded to Augusta on the afternoon of November 13th. The next morning a majority of the committee called upon the mayor of the city to inform him of their visit to Augusta and its purpose. The mayor informed the committee that the water in the river was too high to make an examination of the fish-ways, and also that there was no boats that could be gotten at short notice to take the committee to the points where a thorough examination could be made.

He further stated that if the committee would remain until the next day he would make the necessary arrangements to enable the committee to make the best inspection which the height of the water would permit; or if the Committee would return at another time when the water was low he would furnish every facility for the investigation. The Committee therefore decided to devote that day to an inspection of the manufacturing establishments operated by water power, and return at a later date to inspect the dams and fish-ways. The Committee then proceeded in carriages, tendered them by the mayor, to visit the manufactories, under the guidance of the assistant city engineer. But on reaching the first establishment they decided to abandon this plan and to proceed at once to visit the dams and fish-ways. The committee left the city in a tow boat furnished by the city authorities, and went in this way some eight miles from the city to a point commonly spoken of as "the locks." At that point they found constructed, for the purpose of turning water into the Augusta Canal, a dam of solid masonry some twelve feet in height.

This dam extended from the Georgia side to the South Carolina side of the river, continuously, except where broken about midway, where there are three openings, which the committee were informed were twenty feet wide each, and again by another opening near the South Carolina side, in which the committee was informed there was constructed a fish-way. The committee viewed the dam, openings and fish-way only from the Georgia side, as there were no means at hand of getting nearer to these places. The committee remained at this point on the Georgia bank about fifteen minutes gazing at the dam, the three openings in the middle of the river about one thousand feet away, and the place where the fish-way was said to be, some two thousand feet away, over toward South Carolina. The Committee then returned to Augusta, and that night returned to Atlanta, without making further investigation, and has since made no further investigation of the matter committed to them.

The committee were informed by the mayor that the fish-way above referred to was of the patent considered by the United States Fish Commissioner as the best known device for the passage of fish; that it was put in under the advice and direction of the Fish Commissioners of Georgia and South Carolina; that the city employed a man to attend to the fishway and keep it clean and in good order.

The committee was further informed that fish were prevented reaching the dam or fishway by reason of the fact that fishermen, many miles below Augusta, stretched their nets from bank to bank during the shad season, thereby preventing almost, if not entirely, the passage of fish.

It was a self-evident fact that no fish could get over the dam where it was unbroken by openings or fishway. But the committee themselves did not get near enough to these openings or fishway to ascertain from their own investigation whether or not fish could pass; nor did they take any evidence on the subject.

The committee did not investigate whether or not there were other obstructions below Augusta, as intimated, which might be the real cause of the trouble; nor did they take any evidence on the subject.

The committee made no investigation of any character, whatever, to ascertain the true cause of the disappearance of shad from the river.

The committee made no investigation of what were the interests dependent on the maintenance of the dam, or their value to the State, either absolutely or comparatively, with the value of the fish alleged to have been destroyed.

The committee made no investigation to ascertain under what authority, or by virtue of what right, if any, the dam was built and is now maintained.

The Mayor of the city of Augusta did also, by letter, inform the committee, before the majority report was made up or agreed upon, that he would be glad at any time to furnish the committee with every facility, and render to them all assistance possible in making a thorough examination of the dam, openings, fishway, nets, etc., etc. But the committee did not avail itself of the proffered assistance.

Therefore, it is respectfully submitted that the foregoing statement of facts shows that the investigation of the committee was not thorough, but, on the contrary, superficial and incomplete; it was not conducted with the care and deliberation which the great interests involved called for. And it is further respectfully submitted that the investigation does not authorize any certain conclusions or warrant any action by the General Assembly. All of which is respectfully submitted.

BRYAN CUMMING.

SENATE CHAMBER, ATLANTA, GA.,
Thursday, November 23d, 1893, 10 o'clock A. M.

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment, the President in the chair.

Prayer was offered by the Rev Mr. Eakes, Chaplain of the House.

On the call of the roll the following Senators answered to their names:
Mr. Fitzgerald, Chairman of the Committee on Journals, reported the Journal correct. It was then read and approved by the Senate.

Mr. Chambers rose to a question of personal privilege, and caused to be read by the Secretary the following extract from the Constitution newspaper of this date:

"'Second, the joint report says: 'The taxes for the payment of the appropriations to the widows and disabled soldiers do not reach the Treasury until December of each year, but heretofore they have been paid eight or nine months previous thereto.'"

"'Now, as to that statement of fact, I beg to take direct issue with the committee, especially as to the widows' pensions, and I judge the same is true as to the soldiers' pensions. I maintain that the widows are not paid before, but after the money is received in the Treasury. We all know the widows get their pensions in February. The Joint Committee says that money comes into the Treasury the following December. The issue is a plain question of fact, and I appeal to the official records of the State. The records in the office of the Comptroller-General show that the usual time for the Governor to make the tax levy is the latter part of August. In 1891 this levy was not made until September 26th. This postponement was made by the Governor in order that the Legislature, then holding its July session, might provide additional funds to meet the widows' pensions. The first act to pension widows was approved December, 1890, directing payment to be made of $60,000 for the year beginning February, 1891. Instead of $60,000 being sufficient it was found that $400,000 was necessary. The tax levy for 1891 was made September 26, 1891, and the rate for general purposes, which includes pensions, was increased from 2 7-10 mills for 1890 to 3 5-10 mills for 1891. This increase was made to cover the additional amount for widows' pensions mainly. I have a written statement, signed by the Comptroller-General, saying the levy of 3 5-10 for 1891 did include the widows' pensions for 1891.

"Now, the taxes under that levy of September 26, 1891, reached the Treasury in December, 1891, and not 1892. The first payment of pensions to widows was made in February, 1892, not February, 1891. These are facts of record.

"So it is just as clear as written evidence can make it, that the Joint Committee is wrong when it says the widows are paid eight or nine months before their money gets into the Treasury. Whatever other purpose the school fund may have been used for, it is plainly evident that it is not used to pay widows' pensions.'

"Is there any opposition or contradiction between the report of the Joint Committee and the bill favorably reported by the Educational Committee for the more prompt payment of the teachers?"

"In reality, none at all.'"
Mr. Chambers explained as follows:

"As a member of the committee who submitted this report, I am unwilling that the criticism as made by Mr. Fleming shall pass unnoticed. In this interview it is charged that the report of this committee as to the statement of facts that the taxes for the payment of the appropriation to the widows and soldiers do not reach the Treasury until December of each year, but heretofore they have been paid eight or nine months previous thereto.

"If this statement of fact is false the Treasurer is responsible therefor. The committee had no authority to investigate or ascertain any facts as to the payment of these pensions. Its duty was to 'ascertain and report what amount of money, if any, is necessary to pay the teachers' salaries quarterly.'

"With this purpose in view the committee called upon the Treasurer, which at its first meeting arrived at no satisfactory conclusion. At the meeting on the next day at the Treasury, the committee was informed by the Treasurer that the pensions to widows and soldiers were paid out of the educational fund eight or nine months previous to the time it was collected by the Treasurer from taxes raised for this purpose. He also informed the committee that if arrangements could be made to pay the pensions quarterly, there would be sufficient funds in the Treasury to pay the teachers quarterly. Upon this information from the Treasurer, your committee submitted the report. If the statement of facts therein stated is false, the Treasurer of the State is responsible.

"Mr. President, not only the teachers, but the people of the State of Georgia, have been clamorous for their quarterly payment. They have been informed that there was no money in the Treasury of the State to make these payments. At the last session of this General Assembly a bill passed the lower house, authorizing the issuance of bonds to the amount of $368,000, ostensibly for the payment of the interest on the public debt, but argued on the floor of the House as if it was to raise the funds to pay the teachers quarterly. When the bill came to the Senate, after discussion and investigation, this body refused to pass it. The Special Committee who counted the money in the Treasury in June last, found more than one million dollars in the Treasury. In the face of this report by this committee, we are confronted by another bill in the House for the increase of bonds to the amount of $368,000, and another to raise funds by taxation to pay off teachers; and the question is presented, why raise more money when there is so much in the Treasury? To ascertain and report the facts as to the practicability of paying teachers quarterly your committee was appointed, and in the discharge of this duty submitted the report which is criticised by the gentleman from Richmond.

"In conclusion, I repeat that if false the Treasurer is responsible; as a member of that committee I adhere to the general conclusion reported by the committee, that there is sufficient funds in the treasury to pay these salaries to teachers quarterly, without raising additional moneys, either by issuing bonds or by direct taxation."

Mr. Hatcher, also, rose to a question of personal privilege in relation to the extract quoted, and said:

"Mr. President: As a member of the Joint Committee of the Senate and House, under a resolution of the Legislature, appointed to ascertain and report what amount of money, if any, is necessary to be raised for the payment of teachers of public schools, I signed the report of the committee in the most perfect good faith.

"If, Mr. President, the statement just read from the desk, from the article of Mr. Fleming, and published in the Constitution this morning, is true, then it is evident that the report of the Joint Committee is wrong.

"Under the powers and scope of the joint resolution, the committee was not authorized to inquire into the payment of pensions; but upon the statement of the Treasurer to the committee that there were ample funds in the Treasury to pay the teachers quarterly—were the pensions to widows and disabled soldiers paid quarterly also, he stating that the pensions were now payable in February of each year, eight to ten months in advance of the collection of the pension tax, which exhausted in part the school fund. The committee accepted this statement as the truth and embodied recommendation in its report.

"Now, Mr. President, if Mr. Fleming's statement is true, then the Treasurer's statement to the committee and the report of the committee is false.

"Now, Mr. President, this is my first term of legislative experience. My duties have not been assigned upon the finance committee, and I confess that I signed said report relying upon the Treasurer's statement. At the last session of this Legislature a joint committee was appointed to examine into the condition of the Treasury and report to this session. Said committee reports a sum in the Treasury in June last exceeding one million dollars. From this report we were warranted in accepting the Treasurer's statement that there were ample funds in the Treasury to pay teachers quarterly, if the pensions were also paid quarterly.

"It is true, Mr. President, that a bill was introduced in the last session of this General Assembly to float $368,000 in bonds to refund the interest on the public debt, so that the money now appropriated and raised for said purpose might enable the Treasury to pay teachers quarterly. This bill was defeated by the General Assembly.

"Mr. President, up to this date no report of the Treasurer has been submitted to this session of the Legislature, and we are within a few weeks of adjournment. I am unable, Mr. President, to say more on this subject than to say that I signed said report relying upon the statement of the Treasurer, and am unwilling to let the interview of the gentleman from Richmond pass without this explanation.

Your committee instruct me to report, that on account of the many inaccuracies and mistakes appearing in a number of House bills now in the hands of the Senate, they have been unable, intelligently, to pass upon the same; and your committee desire to call the attention of the Enrolling Committee of the House to the same, in order that said inaccuracies and mistakes may be corrected.

It is as follows:

WHEREAS, At the last session of the General Assembly a bill was introduced and urged for passage, authorizing the Governor to issue and float bonds of this State to the amount of $368,000.00 to fund the interest on the public debt of this State, so as to provide a fund from money in the State Treasury to pay the public school teachers quarterly; and

WHEREAS, A Joint Committee from the Senate and House, appointed at the last session to investigate the condition of the Treasury, have made their report to this session of the General Assembly, from which it appears that on the first day of July, 1893, there was the sum of $— in the State Treasury; and

WHEREAS, At the present session a Joint Committee of the Senate and House was appointed to examine the condition of the Treasury and ascertain what deficiency, if any, it was necessary to supply in order to pay the public school teachers quarterly, and said committee having reported that the Treasurer informed them that there were ample funds in the Treasury to pay said public school teachers quarterly if the soldiers' and widows' pensions were also paid quarterly, the present inability to pay said teachers quarterly arising from using a part of the school fund in February in the payment of said pensions, when money to pay said pensions was not paid into the Treasury until December thereafter; and

Whereas, It appears from the books in the Executive office that the pensions paid to widows was not paid until after the tax for said purpose was collected and turned into the Treasury; and

Whereas, A joint resolution has been introduced by the Senate, reciting that deposits have been made in certain State Depositories largely in excess of the amounts of the bonds required of such Depositories; and

Whereas, The Treasurer has failed to make a report to this session of the General Assembly of the condition of the Treasury, as required by law; therefore, be it

Resolved, That a joint committee, consisting of three from the Senate and five from the House, be appointed, who shall be required to report as early as practicable to the General Assembly, now in session, the true condition of the State Treasury, the amount of money in the various State Depositories, when such money was paid in such Depositories, and the reason, if any, why the public school teachers cannot be paid quarterly, and also the pensions. Mr. Wilcox, of the 13th District, chairman of the Joint Committee on the Lunatic Asylum, submitted the following report, 150 copies of which were ordered to be printed for use of the Senate, to-wit:

Mr. President:

The Committees of the House and Senate, acting as a Joint Committee on the Lunatic Asylum, submit the following report:

We have visited and inspected the asylum in all its departments, and desire to say that we found the same in all respects eminently satisfactory.

The appropriations made at the last session of the Legislature have been judiciously and economically used. The repairs and improvements provided for have been completed in the most satisfactory manner, and to the extent to which it was expected they have relieved the pressure arising from the overcrowded condition of the various wards.

But your committee unanimously concur in the views of the Trustees of this institution to the effect that there is immediate necessity for a large increase in the accommodations to meet the present and constantly growing demands from every part of the State for the relief of the insane, for whom as yet it is not possible to provide on account of want of room.

The files of the institution show that there are one hundred and seventeen applications for admission into the asylum for persons who have been adjudged insane and are confined in the various jails of the State, because there is no room for them at the asylum. And at the same time it is known to the authorities of the asylum that there exists a still greater number of such persons being cared for at enormous expense and trouble by friends, who would be applying for admittance but for the knowledge of the fact that they cannot be received, and friends are not willing to have them adjudged insane lest they should be compelled to be kept in jail.

It is admitted, we believe, by all medical authorities that the probability of recovery in all cases of insanity is greatly increased by early treatment, and greatly diminished by delay, a very short period being usually sufficient to render such cases chronic, and therefore they become a permanent charge upon the State, while prompt and speedy attention would have restored them to reason and usefulness, and at the same time relieve the State of much expense.

In view of these considerations your committee, while anxious to protect the State from every needless expenditure, feel constrained to recommend a large addition to the buildings of the asylum, in accordance with the request of the Board of Trustees.

We agree with the board in the opinion that the needs of the State, as well as the economic administration of this great charity, require that at this time provision should be made looking to the future as well as the present. That a new building sufficient to accommodate all the present colored patients, with surplus room to meet future increased demands for this class, ought to be immediately begun and pressed to completion as promptly as the work can be economically done. And that the present negro building be finished up and prepared for the occupancy of white male patients. If this was done the white males could be removed from their present quarters, leaving room for female patients and relieving the overcrowded condition of the present female wards. With the addition and changes thus recommended, there would probably be no overcrowding for the next ten years and probably more.

To meet these requirements we recommend the appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars, to be paid out of the Treasury of the State, in two installments of fifty thousand dollars each, one to be paid during the year 1894 and the other in 1895.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Wm. A. Wilson, Chairman.

Leave of absence was granted Messrs. Pinson and Thompson.

Mr. Robbe introduced the following report of the Special Committee on Enlargement of Georgia State Lunatic Asylum, 150 copies of which were ordered to be printed for the use of the Senate:

To the General Assembly of Georgia:

The Joint Committee appointed by you during your last session, for the purpose of inquiring into and reporting at this session on the need of additional room for the accommodation of the insane, to which your attention has been yearly called since 1890 by the Board of Trustees, and whether it would be better, if we found, in our opinion, that additional room was necessary, to increase the number of buildings at the present location of the Asylum, or to establish at some other place an entire new outfit of buildings, and to ascertain and report the cost of said improvements, beg leave to offer the following as the result of their investigation.

In the month of July your committee met by appointment the Board of Trustees at the Georgia State Lunatic Asylum, in Milledgeville, and were afforded by them and the officials of the Asylum every opportunity of investigating and ascertaining the present condition of the Asylum at that place. Our inquiries were, we believe, thorough, and included all of the details of the Asylum; and we found, much to our satisfaction, that the present Asylum is fully equipped with all the appointments and appliances required for the economical administration of such an establishment: such as a complete system of water works, steam laundry, steam bakery, steam cooking, power machine and wood working repair shops, gas works, storehouse, and a thorough system of sanitation and protection against fire. These appointments have all been constructed, and are being used in the line of the economic and absolute needs of such an institution, reducing very much the cost of preparing the food and lessening the waste inevitable in other methods of cooking, and cheapening cost of repairs, saving of fuel, and have contributed in no small degree to the very small and gratifying \textit{per diem} cost of maintaining the inmates, as exhibited in the annual reports of the Board of Trustees.

The health of the place is good, water supply pure and abundant, and in excess of present demands. And this is true of the gas supply for lighting the buildings and grounds. The sewerage is a thorough and complete system, and only needs extension by branches, to meet the want of any new buildings that may be erected hereafter. And all of the appointments that we have mentioned as already in operation on the place, were constructed with possible future enlargements in view.

Your committee, with these facts before them, readily saw that if they found that increased accommodations were necessary they could be added on the grounds of the present Asylum at probably one-half of the cost, or less, than at any other place in the State. The Asylum grounds are ample, containing thirty-five hundred (3500) acres, with most eligible sites for additional buildings, besides dairy, stock and garden lands, and these valuable adjuncts, which have not been heretofore mentioned in this report, are the source of a constant revenue to the State.

Our next investigation was regarding the need of enlargement of the accommodations for inmates, and if they were of such a pressing character as to require the attention of the General Assembly at this session.

Our inquiry developed the fact that there was at that time over one hundred applications on file in the superintending Physician's office, for admission from different counties in the State, none of whom could be received for want of room, and would not be received until a vacancy was caused by the death or discharge of some patient already under treatment in the Asylum. In addition to this number of applicants, it is estimated that there are at least as many more, who have not made application, knowing the futility of an effort to obtain admission. These unfortunates are confined in the county jails, without suitable medical attention, as it is not claimed by the regular practitioners of medicine that they understand or undertake the treatment of disordered mentality.

In support of this view of the case, we desire to call attention to the fact that “The Medical Association” of Georgia, at its forty-fourth annual session, which convened at Americus on the 19th of April last, appointed a committee, consisting of one of their members from each Congressional District, to render such aid as lay in their power toward securing an increase of accommodation at the asylum, so that the pressing needs of their unfortunate patients for proper attention could be relieved. This action of the Medical Association was taken without the knowledge of your committee, neither was it known by them that you had taken action looking to the accomplishment of this result, by the appointment of a committee at your last session to ascertain the best location and cost of the extension. The committee of the Medical Association, on learning of your action, at once called a meeting of their committee in Atlanta for the purpose of a conference with your committee, which was had, and the substance of their request will be given in connection with this report. (See appendix.)

Your committee believe that they are fully in accord with the generally expressed desire of the tax-payers of the State, that, at least until the present financial depression has passed, that there should be as much economy in the administration of affairs as would be wise and just to all of the people within our borders, and that no unnecessary burdens should be placed upon our already distressed citizens, but this class of unfortunates seems to have claims upon us not to be measured by dollars and cents, and we are constrained to believe that when the real needs of the mentally distressed are properly presented to our constituents they will readily contribute the comparatively small amount necessary to provide shelter and medical attention to all of Georgia's unfortunates.

The cost of maintenance, as shown by the reports of the Board of Trustees, are less at the Asylum, even when including proper medical treatment and surroundings, than they are in the county jail, without such environments and skilled attention as is absolutely necessary if we expect to entertain a reasonable hope of their early recovery and restoration to their friends and usefulness, instead of becoming chronic sufferers and charges on the tax-payers of their counties.

Can it be claimed that this is good economy, to neglect these sufferers, as we will do unless we provide for their care, thus entailing a continual expense, when by the use of proper means a large per cent. of the number, from 40 per cent. to 50 per cent., could be restored to health and thereby increase the productive power of the State?

A ground plan has been prepared, which we have had lithographed in reduced size, which will accompany each copy of this report. These give the general form and plan of construction of the proposed building.

The building is to be of brick, 1,377 feet and six inches long, 26 feet and 8 inches wide, and three stories high, containing 702 dormitories, besides dining-room, cook-room, etc.; the total cost of which will be $130,000, and the additional amount of $20,000 is asked for the purpose of renovating the present negro building and adding thereto dining-room.

Your committee, with these facts before them, cannot do otherwise than to ask this Legislature to make the appropriation proposed by them, and we would respectfully suggest that these appropriations be so ordered that the last payment be made by January, 1896.

Respectfully submitted.

C. A. Robbe,
Chairman Senate Committee.

Thirteenth District.

APPENDIX.

Columbus, Ga., November 13, 1893.

To the Honorable the members of the Georgia Legislature:

The object of this brief circular is to call your attention to the deplorable condition of the State Lunatic Asylum, and to enlist your co-operation as guardians of the interest and welfare of those so unfortunate of our citizens who require our care and attention, the poor unfortunates who are suffering from diseased minds and bodies, and who are a burden to themselves and a tax upon their friends and relatives, who are unable to give them the attention their needs require, many of whose lives can be saved, and they be restored to useful citizenship by being given proper medical and other attention.

The present crowded state of our State Lunatic Asylum is appalling, and appeals to our every instinct and sympathy, and it is highly necessary that something be done to give relief. A casual glance at the report of Dr. Powell, the Superintendent, will convince any one of the necessity of the enlargement of the institution. The cramped condition of the institution for the past seven or eight years has made lifelong invalids and constant charges on the taxpayers of many who could have been restored to citizenship if they had been given proper attention.

Dr. T. O. Powell says in his report:

"Every available space in the white male and colored male and female departments is now occupied. We have 119 rooms with two patients in a room, 27 rooms with more than two patients in each room, and 104 patients sleeping out in the halls of the various wards, many of their beds on the floor. This state of things is to be deplored, and should be avoided if possible. For with the utmost care and discretion in the selection of roommates, many chances of serious acts of violence and injury are taken.

"We also had the amusement hall in the white male convalescent building converted into an open ward, which accommodated 40 patients. Still we have 117 applicants, 63 whites and 54 colored, that we cannot receive for want of space."

It is our opinion that should an epidemic break out among the inmates it would require the expenditure of many thousands of dollars to control it in the present crowded condition of the institution.

Just think of 117 applicants for berths in the institution who are not able to be cared for, the majority of whom have to be confined in the county jail, unable to receive proper medical attention, in many cases mixed up with criminals, who might be restored to health and reason.

We think this a matter which calls for speedy legislative action, and we trust that your honorable body will give such shape to it that there will be no need for further complaint.

From an economic standpoint it is shown that it is far cheaper per capita to take care of the State's unfortunates in the Asylum, where they will receive expert medical treatment, than for each individual county to care for them in the county jail. And from a humanitarian standpoint, it were better a thousand fold to be cared for by the State institution. And from the last analysis, it were cheaper for the taxpayers, as they have to foot the expenses in the end.

The Board of Trustees have asked for an appropriation of one hundred and fifty thousand ($150,000) dollars with which to enlarge the Asylum, and we trust and ask that our representatives urge the appropriation. This amount will not be near enough to accomplish what is needed, but it were better that than leave it in its present condition, for what is the expenditure of a few paltry dollars to the State in comparison to the vast amount of good it will do her citizens.

The overcrowded condition of the Asylum retards the curing of those there, and it probably induces the discharge of patients before they are really well, and it is only a short time before they relapse again.

We deem it unnecessary to more than call the attention of your honorable body to this matter, feeling assured that each of you have the same feeling at heart for the interest of your State and fellow-man.

Would also refer you to the annual report of the Trustees of the Georgia Lunatic Asylum from October, 1892, to October, 1893. Very respectfully,

R. E. Griggs, M. D.,
Chairman of Committee on Asylum Legislation of the Georgia Medical Association.

Mr. Wright, of the 38th District, chairman of the Committee on the Academy for the Blind, submitted the following report, to-wit:

Mr. President:

Your Committee on the Academy for the Blind visited that institution, at Macon, on Friday, December the 1st, and on careful examination, found the buildings, grounds, etc., in satisfactory condition, except the roof of the main building, which, from age, is so much impaired, should be replaced at as early a day as practicable. This building is also without fire escapes, and in our opinion should no longer be left in this condition, as in time of fire or storm they would greatly facilitate escape, and would thus render the safety of the unfortunate inmates more certain.

The institution is a growing one. We find 126 inmates in attendance—104 whites, 22 colored—which is an increase of 15 more than the number in attendance last year.

The committee examined the management and workings of the institution as carefully as the time would allow, and found nothing to condemn; but the method adopted for teaching the blind is very efficient, and that the money appropriated to the institution by the State is carefully handled and economically expended.

Your committee recommend that the sum of four thousand dollars be appropriated by the present General Assembly, two thousand dollars to be expended in re-covering and purchasing fire escapes for the main building, and two thousand dollars for maintenance made necessary on account of the increased attendance of students.

Respectfully submitted.

We find some small variances between the sworn statements furnished us by the State depositories and the books of the Treasurer, which are accounted for by checks drawn on said depositories by the Treasurer, as shown in his books, which have not been presented for payment. In the account of the Central Georgia Bank, of Macon, we find a deposit of $59.02 to the credit of the State on November 11th, 1893, on account of insolvent cost Bibb county, which the Treasurer's books do not show, and which item it appears was not reported to the Treasurer. Also, a difference of $4.75 in favor of the State in the statement of the Merchants Bank, of Atlanta, as compared with the Treasurer's books, which difference has existed for some time, and can be adjusted by the officers of said bank and the Treasurer by a comparison of their books.

Your committee did not have the time or opportunity to provide for an expert examination of the Treasurer's books, but, to the extent of our time and ability to do so, have examined them and find no evidence of incorrectness in them. The balances and entries compare with the books in the Comptroller-General's office, which stand as an auditing account of the Treasurer's office, and a thorough examination of the Treasurer's books would necessarily involve a like examination of the Comptroller-General's books.

Of the amounts shown in the various State depositories we find it all available except the sum of $25,449.73, in the Brunswick bank, now in the hands of a receiver, which sum, the Treasurer informs us, will not be lost to the State, but is amply secured.

We call special attention to the large amounts on deposit in the Third National Bank of Columbus, the LaGrange Banking and Trust Company, and the Merchants Bank of Atlanta, above the amounts of bonds required of them by law. We find that on November 1st, 1892, the Third Na­tional Bank of Columbus had to the credit of the State the sum of $210,713.11, which amount, besides various small deposits, was increased by deposits direct from the Treas­ury, on December 17th, 1892, of $40,000; on January 20th, 1893, of $17,000; on February 7th, 1893, of $10,- 000, and on September 14th, 1893, of $10,000; on July 1st, 1893, of $35,000; on August 3d, 1893, of $10,000.
The largest amounts drawn against these deposits were, on June 20th, 1893, $20,600, and on October 2d, 1893, $10,- 000, leaving a balance due the State by this bank on De­cember 1st, 1893, of $301,450.10.

We find due the State by the LaGrange Banking and Trust Company, on November 1st, 1892, the sum of $118,- 268,71, which sum, besides other small deposits, was in­creased by deposits direct from the Treasury on August 2d, 1893, of $25,031.25; on August 25th, 1893, of $5,000, and on September 22d, 1893, of $5,000. Against this only small checks have been drawn, leaving a balance due the State December 1st, 1893, of $159,732.32.

We find due the State by the Merchants Bank of At­lanta on November 1st, 1892, $79,364.04. This amount has been increased by numerous deposits during the year, the large amounts varying from $10,000 to $37,000, against which we find numerous checks drawn, mostly of small amounts, but several varying from ten to fifty thousand dollars, leaving a balance due the State, according to the Treasurer's books, December 1st, 1893, of $153,512.18.
We submit herewith the sworn itemized statements of the various State depositories, except the New York and Brunswick banks, November 1st, 1892, to November 27th, 1893, marked "Exhibit A." By this exhibit it will be shown that some increase of deposits has accumulated in all of said depositories within the last twelve months, except the Griffin Banking Company, the Milledgeville Banking Company, and the bank of the University at Athens, in which the deposits have increased.

Your committee took the sworn testimony of the president and the cashier of the Third National Bank of Columbus, the president of the LaGrange Banking and Trust Company, and the State Treasurer and his assistant, which testimony we had reported by a stenographer, and herewith submitted as "Exhibit B." As will be shown by reference to said evidence, your committee interrogated them specifically as to the large deposits made in the LaGrange and Columbus banks, and find that no pecuniary interest or benefit, directly or indirectly, prompted the State Treasurer to make said deposits, but that it was done in compliance with the request of the presidents of said banks. The Treasurer swears that he would have granted a like request from any other State depository which he regarded as safe for the amount of such deposits, and that in making such deposits direct from the Treasury he acted under the authority of the written opinion of the Hon. Wm. A. Little, Attorney-General, dated September 17th, 1891, which will be found on pages 37 to 39 of the Attorney-General's report for the year 1892. While your committee express no opinion as to the true construction of the law on this point, they would condemn the policy of such large accumulations of the State's money in the depositories, though it appears that the Treasurer acted under the written opinion of the Attorney-General, and has not been prompted by any corrupt motive in his conduct.
We find that one of the State depositories is a National bank, and deem it proper to call attention to the fact that, while our Georgia statute, which gives the State a first lien on the assets of a bank selected as a depository, has been upheld by the Supreme Court in the case of a State bank, yet the Federal law fixes the rank of liens on the assets of a National bank, and that Federal law could not be altered by a State law; it would therefore appear that if a National bank is selected as a depository the State would not have a first lien on its assets but would stand on the same footing as other like depositors.

For this reason it might be best to require an increased bond from any National bank that may be selected as a State depository.

From our investigation we find that the Treasurer was mistaken in his statement to a former joint committee, that the present inability to pay the public school teachers quarterly arises from using a part of the school fund in February in the payment of the soldiers and widows’ pensions, when the money to pay said pensions was not paid into the treasury until December thereafter, but that this mistake arose from the dates upon the warrants drawn on him by the Governor of file in his office, said warrants showing on their faces that they were drawn in years 1892 and 1893 for the pensions of said years, when in fact they were to pay pensions for which taxes were collected in 1891 and 1892.

We further find that the delay of the Treasurer in making his report to this session of the General Assembly was caused by the failure of the printer to get it published as early as necessary, said report having been placed with the printer on the 9th day of October, 1893, and that said report has since been published and submitted to the General Assembly.

We herewith submit as a part of this report estimates furnished us by the State Treasurer, marked "Exhibit C," showing the estimated resources and expenditures of the State, from which we report that the public school teachers can be paid twenty-five per cent. on the first of April, twenty-five per cent. on the first of July, twenty-five per cent. on the first of October, and twenty-five per cent. on the first of January of each year, but that the safer plan would be to pay the teachers twenty-five per cent. on the first of July, twenty-five per cent. on the first of October, and fifty per cent. on the first of January of each year, and this can be done without the issuing of bonds or increase of taxation, by the use of funds other than the school fund, to aid in such payment, the school fund not coming into the Treasury at such periods of the year as to admit of such payments out of the school fund alone. As an additional suggestion for the payment of teachers, we further report from our investigation and from the opinion of the Treasurer, that the State Treasurer can safely advance to the common school fund from other resources the sum of three hundred thousand dollars on any date between July 1st and October 1st, to be used toward accomplishing payment of teachers in full at the end of each quarter, the said $300,000 to be returned out of the school money when the same is received into the Treasury.

Respectfully submitted.

GEORGIA, Richmond County.

Personally appeared before me, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, Charles G. Goodrich, who, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is Cashier of the Georgia Railroad Bank, and that the foregoing account with the State of Georgia, extending from the balance brought forward on January 3, 1893, $105,925.93, to and including the balance due the state on November 27, 1893, amounting to $55,704.77, is correct to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, his twenty-eighth day of November, 1893.

WILLIAM MARTIN,
Notary Public Richmond County, Georgia.
e of Georgia, Treasury Department, Atlanta, Ga., in Account with the Commercial Bank of Albany.

APPENDIX B.
EXHIBIT B.

TESTIMONY OF WITNESSES AS THEY WERE EXAMINED BY THE COMMITTEE.

MR. DALEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Jordan, sworn, testifies as follows:

Q. Mr. Jordan, what position do you hold in the Third National Bank of Columbus? A. I am president.

Q. We have a statement of that bank which shows that on the first of __________, 1892, there was a balance of $280,713.11 to the credit of the State. Can you tell us how long that credit of the State has been in your bank? A. I think about one year.

Q. What interest did you pay? A. None at all. They drew on us for $25,000, which I think we paid last year.

Q. Was there a very big deposit last year? A. I am not certain, but don’t think there was a big deposit last year, but I don’t remember.

Q. Were there any taxes paid in by November 1st? A. Yes, sir; we got some by October.

Q. I notice in last year, in September, a deposit of $40,000? A. Yes, sir; that came from the Treasurer direct.

Q. Did you know from what fund it was derived? A. I did not.

Q. On the 24th day of September $20,000, was that taxes? A. Yes, sir.

Q. On the 20th of January a deposit of $17,000? A. I think that was from Muscogee Tax-Collector.

Q. What were the taxes of Muscogee county? A. The taxes of Muscogee were about $90,000, and we gave a receipt for that deposit.

Q. There was a deposit of $10,000 in 1893, can you tell where that came from? A. I cannot say, but I think that came from the Treasurer.
Q. There was one for the amount of $36,000, where did that come from? A. That came from the Treasurer.

Q. On the third of August, 1893, of $10,000? A. That came from the Treasurer.

Q. On the fourteenth of September, 1893, of $10,000?
A. That came from the Treasurer.

Q. These amounts, as I understand, were sent to you direct from the Treasury? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then, that makes $95,000 that was sent to you by the Treasurer? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much did I understand you to say that the taxes of Muscogee county was last year? A. I think they were $90,000 year before last.

Q. Mr. Jordan, do you remember when it was that theour-and-a-half bonds were sold? A. I think that it was in 1892.

Q. What time in 1892? A. In May. I bought the issue. It was $200,000.

Q. What did you pay for those bonds? A. I took them at Mr. Wolf's bid, whatever that was, and I paid $200,- 000 with a check on New York, and the balance by a check on my bank.

Q. Where were the bonds delivered? A. Mr. Speer delivered me the bonds in person. He delivered them to me in New York, and I gave him a check for the amount of $200,000 on a New York bank. I may be mistaken, but that is my recollection.

Q. On what bank did you give this check? A. On the Third National Bank.

Q. You don't know where the money went to, do you?
A. I think that it went to the Third National Bank. That is a depository of the State.

Q. You got the money from what bank? A. I got the money from a private party. Mr. Speer met me at the Third National Bank. I will tell you all about it in one minute. I that gave him a check that I got from R. E. Langston & Co.
Q. You made your arrangements through them, and it was their check you gave him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What did he do with this money? A. I think that he put the money right in the Third National Bank.
Q. Mr. Jordan, was there any arrangement of any kind you made with the Third National Bank? A. No, sir.
Q. Did he deposit this money in your bank? A. It may be of information to you to know that we never got a deposit of this money that I gave him in August, but then I told him that I would like to have some money to move cotton, and that was what I wanted it for and only that, and then he tendered it to me, and then I explained to him my reason for wanting the money.
Q. You were appointed State Depository in 1891, were you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What connection has Colonel Hardeman with your bank? A. None at all.

By Col. Reese:
Q. You say that Colonel Hardeman has no connection with your bank? A. None whatever.
Q. What is the capital stock of your bank? A. One hundred thousand dollars.
Q. Where is that stock owned, in Columbus? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You gave a bond, did you not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who was on that bond? A. The directors of the bank.
Q. During the time that this money was advanced to you, in 1893, what was it worth? A. Well, on deposit it was not worth anything; but I never paid over six per cent.
Q. Your bank borrowed no money? A. No, sir.
By Mr. Fleming:

Q. I understand that your bank is the only National bank that is made a State depository. Do you believe that the State can have a first lien on your bank? A. I do.

By Mr. Humphreys:

Q. The Treasurer can call in any of these deposits at any time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Suppose the Treasurer wanted to call in that $301,450.10? A. He can get it by telegraphing.

Q. Colonel, how much money is on deposit in your bank. A. $529,000.

Q. What is the capital stock? A. $100,000.

By Mr. Fleming:

Q. Colonel, on the supposition that you cannot change the priority of liens on a National bank, then you have $301,450.10 of the State's money for which the State has only a bond of $50,000, leaving a balance of $251,450.10 unsecured? A. Yes, sir, that is right.

Q. $251,450.10, for which the State has no security? A. Yes, sir.

Q. The $50,000 bond is in the hands of the Governor, then there is a balance of $251,450.10 that is unprotected? A. Yes, sir; if that is true in law.

Q. Was there any understanding between your bank and Colonel Hardeman for those large deposits, and did he directly or indirectly receive any benefit from those large deposits? A. None at all; I will say another thing, that we have never paid a depositor a single cent; neither the city, the county or the State, nor any other private depositor.

Q. Is Colonel Hardeman interested in the stock or the profits of your bank? A. No way in the world. Every dollar of the stock is held by people in Columbus.

Q. When you received these large deposits, $40,000, $17,000, $10,000, $35,000, $10,000 and $10,000, did you write any letters to Colonel Hardeman? A. No, sir; I am sure that I did not.

Q. You came in person? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You never wrote a letter? A. I never wrote him a letter in my life.

Q. You did not write a letter at all? A. My recollection is that I never wrote him a letter of any kind.

Q. Who was Attorney-General when those bonds were issued? A. Mr. W A. Little.

Q. Do you know whether he prepared the bond or not? A. I do not.

By Mr. Reese:

Q. Colonel, did I understand you to say that your bank was a United States depository? A. We have deposits, but we are not a depository.

Q. What amount of funds do you hold? A. Five thousand dollars.

Q. I understand that you are not a United States depository? A. No, sir.

Q. What interest has the Assistant Treasurer, Mr. Speer, in the Third National Bank of Columbus? A. None in the world; or if he has I don’t know it.

Q. I understand your first answer to cover that question? A. Yes, sir.

Q. The stockholders are all in Columbus, are they? A. All but one, and he lived in New York; that was Mr. Backer, and when he died that was sold to a man in Columbus.

Mr. Murphy, sworn, testifies as follows:

Q. What position do you hold with the Third National Bank of Columbus? A. I am cashier.
Q. How long have you been there? A. I have been there about one year.

Q. Can you give us any information as to how long this balance has been due the State? A. Well, I don't think that I could answer that question, for the reason that I am not an expert bookkeeper, and don't think that I could answer that question.

Q. Can you tell me about how much you have had? A. We have had a pretty good balance.

Q. Well, you will notice a deposit of $40,000; when did you get that, in December, '92? A. Yes, sir; but I can answer only in a general way, as I had nothing to do with those deposits.

Q. Do you know whether your bank has paid any interest on these deposits? A. Not a cent.

Q. Not anything? A. No, sir.

Q. Has Colonel Hardeman any connection with the Third National Bank? A. No, sir. You mean stock?

Q. Yes. A. No, sir.

Q. Who did you say owned the stock? A. The people of Columbus; but there was a non-resident, and he was a Mr. Backer, and he is dead. He was a director, and owned $10,000. When we first made up the bank Mr. Richards was to have taken $10,000, and that was all of the non-resident stockholders. When Mr. Backer died his stock went to Savannah and was sold, and a resident of Columbus bought it.

Q. Did you have any personal knowledge as to how the four-and-a-half bonds were paid for? A. I did not. They were not paid for through the Third National Bank.

Q. Did Mr. Jordan give a check for the purchase of those bonds? A. I don't know.

Q. Would you know what a check of that kind was for? A. I would not.

Q. Where were those bonds delivered to Mr. Jordan?
A. I don’t know, sir; but I think that they were delivered to him in New York. That was a transaction that our bank had nothing to do with.

Mr. George Speer, sworn, testifies as follows:

Q. Mr. Speer, what position do you hold with the LaGrange Banking and Trust Company? A. I am president.

Q. We notice that you have $159,732.32? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And I notice here that there was a deposit of $1,005 in August; first, $25,031.25; then August 25th $5,000; September $5,000; where did you get those deposits? A. From the Treasurer. I was up here and asked for them and got them.

Q. On what terms did you get them? A. None but that we were a depository and asked for them and got them.

Q. Well, what has been about the average balance you have kept for the State before? A. About $75,000 to $80,000. I don’t know how long it has been since we have had as high as $100,000.

Q. What is your capital stock? A. $150,000.

Q. What is your surplus? A. $90,000.

Q. How much have you on deposit? A. About $225,000.

Q. That includes the State’s money? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you connected in any way with the Treasurer’s bond? A. Yes, sir; I am on his security.

Q. Is Col. Hardeman connected with your bank? A. No, sir.

Q. Did or does he own any of the stock? A. No, sir.

Q. He is not connected in any way? A. None whatever.

Q. What are the people worth that made that bond? A. Several hundred thousand dollars. Mr. Ferrill is on it, and he is worth $150,000. All of them on it are the moneyed people of Troup county.
Q. How much money have you got now? A. We have got here, New York and LaGrange, $200,000. We have got in LaGrange $30,000 or $40,000, and in Atlanta $5,000 or $6,000, and $100,000 worth of bonds in New York. Those bonds are owned by the stockholders, and they are mostly, the State of Georgia bonds.

Mr. William Speer, sworn, testifies as follows:

Q. You are Assistant Treasurer in the Treasurer’s office? A. Yes, sir.

Q. We notice in your account with the Third National Bank of Columbus a deposit on December, 1892, of $40,000. Do you know how that money went there? A. I do not; but just wait and I will go and get the certificate and that will show all about it.

Q. You have not refreshed yourself? A. No, sir; but since you have asked the question I think that it went directly from the Treasury.

Q. On the 20th day of January, $17,000, February $10,000, then on the first day of July $35,000? A. Well, I think they were all checks.

Q. Then August 1st $10,000, then 13th of December $10,000, do you know where they came from? A. No, sir.

Q. You are not conversant with the general depositories? A. No, sir; Mr. Hardeman does all that kind of business and I handle the money.

Q. Mr. Speer, was there any preference shown to these banks? A. Yes, sir; I think there was.

Q. To which was the preference shown? A. Well, Colonel Hardeman’s idea was to get that money in the strongest banks, and he thought that Third National Bank of Columbus and the LaGrange Banking and Trust Company were stronger than any of the other banks.

Q. Which is the State Depository of Atlanta? A. The Merchants Bank.
Q. Did you look upon them as being stronger than the Merchants Bank? A. No, sir, that was not my idea.

Q. Do you think that it was more secure in those two banks than in any other? A. I don't think that it was any more secure there than it was in the Georgia Railroad Bank.

Q. Do you know that the president of the Third National Bank made requests for these deposits? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Well, do you think that was better than to divide the money in other banks? A. Well, I don't know. I know that Mr. Jordan came up here several times to see about money and insisted that they had never had their rights down there.

Q. He thought that he ought to have more than any others? A. I suppose so.

Q. The Columbus bank was not made a depository until April, 1891, and from that time they have always carried a large balance, have they? A. I think not.

Q. Did Colonel Hardeman or yourself receive anything, directly or indirectly, in return for placing those large sums in these banks? A. I know that I never have received any interest, and so far as I know, Mr. Hardeman has never received any, and I know that I have not.

Q. Do you report these banks as all right? A. If they are all right I do. In 1892 I found the bank in Americus in a bad condition and reported it so. Then I found the bank at Cordele in a bad condition, and reported it that way.

Q. The bank of Thomasville is a State depository, is it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. $150,000 capital? A. Yes, sir.

Q. A good bank? A. Yes, sir.

Q. The bank of Valdosta is a good bank; has $150,000, has it? A. No. My recollection is that it had $100,000, but I may be mistaken about it.

Q. Mr. Speer, did you think that it was good policy to put so much money in two banks? A. Well, yes.

Q. Don't you think that it would be better to have fewer State depositories than we have? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mr. Speer, you delivered those bonds to Mr. Jordan in New York, the issue of $200,000 did you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Well, how were you paid for them? A. I was paid by a check.

Q. You know that no other bank asked for money, do you? A. Well, there was one last month that wanted some.

Colonel R. U. Hardeman, sworn, testifies as follows:

Q. Colonel Hardeman, we have a report of the Third National Bank of Columbus, which is one of the State depositories and a deposit to the credit of the State to the amount of $40,000; we wish to know why that money was put there in that bank? A. I gave it to Mr. Jordan in my office upon his request.

Q. Likewise on the 20th of January we find $17,000? A. My recollection is that I gave that to him in person (Mr. Jordan).

Q. And then we find $35,000, $10,000 and $10,000; were all of those given to him in person? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was there anything offered by him to get you to turn over this money to him? A. No, sir.

Q. Have you any interest in the Third National Bank? A. No, sir.

Q. Are you connected in any way with this bank? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you think, Col. Hardeman, under the laws regulating depositories of the State funds, that you have a right to make deposits of this kind? A. Yes, sir.

Cited to the Attorney-General's Report, page 37
Q. Col. Hardeman, do you know anything as to the authority as to the State depositories? A. Yes, sir; look on page 138, in the Act of 1882.

Q. Therefore, the deposits of these funds, other than taxes of that county, was done under the authority of that decision of the Attorney-General? A. Yes, sir; the Attorney-General's ruling I acted on.

Q. Col. Hardeman, there was a deposit in the LaGrange bank August 2d of $25,000, and then again two others of $5,000 each? A. Yes, sir; I gave them to the president myself.

Q. Was that a regular depository at that time? A. Yes, sir; and the money was in the Treasury and I had no use for it, and they asked for it.

Q. Do you look upon those banks as being stronger than the Southern Bank of the State of Georgia? A. I do not.

Q. No other banks made request? A. None at all.

By Mr. Fleming:

Q. Col. Hardeman, did you, or any one connected with your family, or otherwise, receive any benefit, directly or indirectly, out of these large sums deposited in these banks? A. None in the wide world.

By Mr. Thomason:

Q. Col. Hardeman, suppose any other bank had asked for this money, would you have advanced it to them? A. I would; none had ever asked me for any, and I think that the first time the Georgia Railroad Banking Company asked for any was in 1885.

By Mr. Fleming:

Q. Col. Hardeman, did you own any stock in either of these banks? A. None at all.
Q. You don't maintain, as a matter of fact, that the pensions for the widows were received eight months before paid out? A. I don't know.

Q. The widows' pensions were first paid out in February, 1892. Do you maintain that that amount of $400,000 was paid out in advance of the taxes in December, 1891, or January, 1892, or were they paid out of money collected in 1891? A. That I don't know.

Mr. Hackett, chairman of the Committee on the Penitentiary, submitted the following report:

Mr. President:

The Committee on the Penitentiary beg leave to submit the following report:

We have, by appropriate sub-committees, visited most of the camps where convicts are worked. Many of the Senators having been afflicted with the prevailing disease, la grippe, we have been unable to visit each camp. All the camps visited, except Joslyn and Crawfish Springs, were found in good sanitary condition, the convicts properly clothed and sufficiently fed upon wholesome and substantial food.

The Cole City camp, in Dade county, was in exceptionally good sanitary condition, as was also the camp at Rising Fawn. The camp at Crawfish Springs was being repaired. The hospital building was being recovered and the weather was inclement, and a large per cent. of the convicts were afflicted with the prevailing disease of cold or la grippe. Again, water was very scarce, by reason of the long continued drought, and had to be transported for a number of miles, and, as a consequence, more or less uncleanliness existed. Again, as to the camp at Joselyn, your committee are informed that the apparent want of preparation for comfort of convicts was owing to the fact that the buildings had been twice blown down by the tornadoes of last spring and summer.
In the management of the convicts we think an apparent improvement has been reached all along the line. And while we believe this to be true, we must express a serious doubt as to the propriety of working convicts at so many different points in the State, and at so many different kinds of labor, bringing them necessarily and prominently in conflict with free labor. Especially is this so in the lumber producing portion of the State. We are informed that since the committee visited Camp Joselyn, the mills have been burned and the camp removed to Rocky Ford, on the Central railroad, in Bulloch county, and are now in comfortable quarters.

Respectfully submitted.

A. T. HACKETT, Chairman.

Read and adopted in the Senate December 13, 1893.

Mr. Smith, of the 15th District, chairman of the Committee to Visit the Georgia State Normal School, submitted the following report:

The Committee appointed to visit the Georgia State Normal School for girls at Milledgeville, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have performed that duty by visiting said school on the 11th day of December, inst. We found the buildings in excellent condition and well taken care of. The grounds are ample, and while they have not been put in order owing to want of funds, they are susceptible of being made beautiful by tasteful and judicious improvement, which we hope will be done at no distant day.

We were highly pleased with the order, the system and the discipline of the school, as well as with the methods of teaching and kindly care exercised by the worthy President and all the members of the Board of Instruction.

There are over three hundred young ladies in the school, who, by their quiet, modest and lady-like demeanor, challenged the admiration and esteem of every member of the committee.
In the Industrial Department we saw gratifying evidences of the proficiency of the pupils, who, by cheerful and attentive efforts, are certainly making commendable advancement in preparing themselves for the future duties of life.

We are informed that the Dormitory is entirely inadequate to accommodate all the pupils in attendance at this time, and many of them are compelled to board in various families in the city of Milledgeville. Your committee believe that the highest interest, both of the school and the pupils, will be promoted by having all the pupils board in the Dormitory, both because we believe that the discipline can be better preserved and the moral influences of the faculty over the students be more perfect by this means than by having the pupils scattered among the families of the city.

In addition to which we learn that the cost of board in the Dormitory is considerably less than in the city.

For these reasons we hope that at an early day, when the finances of the State are in a condition to do so, a new Dormitory, sufficient to accommodate two hundred or more pupils, will be provided by the State for the use of this admirable and very useful school.

We heartily endorse the appropriation of $2,000.00 proposed by the General Assembly, at its present session, for said school, as it is badly needed for the purpose for which it was made.

We take pleasure in commending to the people of the State the worthy President, Dr. J. Harris Chappell, and his worthy assistants, and believe, under his management, the school will accomplish a great deal of good for the girls of Georgia.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

T. J. Smith, 15th Dist., Chairman.

Mr. Corput introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously agreed to.
Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate are due and are hereby tendered to the Secretary and Assistant Secretaries of the Senate, and each of their assistants, for the able and faithful discharge of their many duties, expressing the belief that their return to their respective positions will redound to the best interests of Georgia.

Resolved further, That the Senate, having observed the politeness and industrious performance of duty by the Messenger of the Senate, D. T. Paulk, tender to him their thanks and sincere wishes for his future usefulness and happiness.

Mr. Corput also offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate are due, and are hereby tendered to the Hon. R. E. Wilson, Doorkeeper of the Senate, and his assistants, for the faithful, efficient and courteous manner in which they have at all times discharged the duties of their offices.

Mr. Dennard offered the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate are hereby tendered to D. T Paulk, Messenger, for the efficient discharge of his duties, and it is the hope of the Senate that he may live to continue in his present position.

Mr. Fitzgerald introduced the following resolution, which was also unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate are tendered our venerable Journalizing Clerk, Troup Taylor, for the correct and efficient manner in which he has discharged his duties.
We wish him many more years of life and happiness, and when he shall pass over the river and be called on to hand in his checks, may they prove as correct as his Journals have always been.

The President then addressed the Senate, and at the conclusion of his address declared the Senate adjourned sine die.
Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate:

I thank you most sincerely for your resolution of congratulation that I have been providentially spared to the completion of my seventy-eighth year on Tuesday, the 7th day of November, 1893, and for your request to address to the Senate some remarks suitable to the occasion. My response to your kind congratulations and to your distinguished compliment to address the Senate most naturally demand a brief review of past memories coincident with the year of my birth and the succeeding years of my life.

It was my privilege and that of my honored and life-long friend, the Hon. Thomas W Fleming, the senator from the Ninth district, to have been born in Liberty county, Georgia, and during the same year, 1815. We were schoolmates seventy years ago in the then beautiful town of Sunbury, situated on Midway river, in close proximity with the ocean. We were college companions of the University of Georgia, and for years members of the ancient church of Midway, Liberty county. In this address he is most intimately associated with me. I first mention that Liberty county has a prominent place in the history of Georgia, originally known as St. John’s Parish. It was the first community in Georgia that decided in favor of the liberties of the colonies, and was permitted to send a representative, Dr. Lyman Hall, to the Continental Congress in Philadelphia in 1775. The colony of Georgia soon followed the example of St. John’s Parish and joined the Continental Congress and was represented by Dr. Lyman Hall and Button Gwinnett in 1776, both of whom were from St. John’s Parish.

When the Declaration of Independence was signed on the 4th of July, 1776, two of the three signers from Georgia were Messrs. Hall and Gwinnett. The third signer was George Walton from Augusta, and when the colonies assumed the functions of States and counties, St. John’s Parish, because of her past prominence in the cause of liberty, was called Liberty county, and the parishes of St. James’ and St. Andrew’s were added to St. John’s and the southern boundary of Liberty county was the Altamaha. It is also remarkable that four of the revolutionary governors of Georgia were from Liberty county: Button Gwinnett in 1777; Richard Howley, a lawyer, in 1780; Dr. Nathaniel Brownson in 1781, and Dr. Lyman Hall in 1783. All four of these were from St. John’s parish, and John Adams Trentlin, one of the governors of Georgia in 1777, was said to have been from St. John’s parish.

I mention a few prominent facts which occurred in the birth year of my friend, Mr. Fleming, and myself: First the battle of New Orleans on the 8th of January, 1825, which gave great distinction to the United States soldiers, and especially to General Andrew Jackson. Eighteen hundred and fifteen closed the war between Great Britain and the United States, although the treaty of peace was made in 1814, but did not reach us until after the battle of New Orleans. A third eventful fact was the battle of Waterloo on the 18th of June of the same year, when the star of the great Napoleon went down to rise no more. Very soon after this battle Napoleon surrendered himself to the commander of the British man-of-war Bellerophon. The English government took possession of their distinguished captive and immediately arranged for his banishment to the Island of St. Helena, whither he was conveyed by a fleet and arrived on the 15th of October, 1815, and where he remained for six years until his death and burial in 1821. Here he slept in death until his removal to France in 1840.

Among my earliest memories is a distinct recollection of Napoleon in captivity, mention being often made of him by the elder members of my family before I was six years of age. I mention with great pleasure a wonderful fact which occurred at St. Helena demonstrating that the great Napoleon was not so swallowed up with selfish ambition as to become a Godless and Christless man. A social argument arose between the friends who shared his exile with him. Count Bertrand remarked with emphasis: “I do not believe that Jesus Christ was divine.” Napoleon was pacing the room back and forth, with him a common habit, apparently in deep meditation when, pausing suddenly, he exclaimed: “Count Bertrand, you say that Christ was not divine, then I ought not to have made you a marshal of France,” and immediately added in words of unparalleled eloquence: “Cæsar, Charlemagne and myself erected empires. On what did we depend, the power of genius and the force of arms. Where are our empires now? All that will soon remain of him whom you call the Great Napoleon will be a handful of dust. Jesus Christ built his kingdom on love founded in the hearts of mankind. That kingdom is continually advancing and will cover the whole earth. Although Christ has ascended from earth nearly two thousand years there are millions of mankind who would die for him and his kingdom. Now that I am here, chained to this rock in the ocean, who fights and wins empires for me." This grand utterance of Napoleon, this unrivaled tribute, is the grandest, the most original and perfect demonstration of the divinity of the Lord Jesus.

Another remarkable fact running parallel with the lives of my old friend and myself is that we have lived contemporaneously with every President of the United States, except Washington, who died on the 14th of December, 1799. No death occurred among those who have been presidents until the 4th of July, 1826, when, wonderful to tell, the second president, John Adams, who succeeded Washington on the 4th of March, 1797, and Thomas Jefferson, who succeeded Mr. Adams on the 4th of March, 1801, were both permitted to die according to their wishes on the Sabbath day commemorative of that never to be forgotten 4th of July, 1776, when they together signed the Declaration of Independence. Mr. Jefferson was eighty-three years of age and died before the middle of the day, and Mr. Adams died in the afternoon, being ninety-one years of age, and in the article of death exclaimed, "I die, but Thomas Jefferson remains," not knowing that Mr. Jefferson had already expired a few hours before.

I have a distinct recollection of the deaths of these distinguished gentlemen and Revolutionary fathers. They were mourned by the whole country.

The year 1825 was distinguished by the visit of General Lafayette to the Southern States, having been invited by the United States Congress to visit our country. General Lafayette responded in 1824, during which year he visited the Northern States. He arrived in Savannah by steamer from Charleston on the 29th of March, 1825. Among the many who went to Savannah to welcome the great benefactor of our country during the Revolutionary war, my father responded, taking with him his entire family. I distinctly remember the grand reception given to Lafayette. He was escorted together with his son, George Washington Lafayette, from the steamer into the city. The General was in an open carriage, drawn by four horses, and his son followed in like manner in another carriage. The reception took place at a splendid mansion known as the Richardson house which still remains George M. Troup, perhaps, the grandest governor of Georgia, the first governor in my memory, made the address of welcome as follows, as found in White’s Historical Collections of Georgia:

"Welcome, Lafayette! General, tis little more than ninety years since the founder of this State first set foot upon the bank upon which you stand. Now 400,000 people open their arms to receive you. Thanks to a kind Providence, it called you to the standard of independence in the helplessness of our Revolution. It has preserved you, that in your latter days the glory of a great empire might be reflected back upon you amid the acclamations of millions. The scenes which are to come will be for you comparatively tranquil and placid. There will be no more of dungeons, no more fears of tyrants. Oh! sir, what a consolation for a man, who has passed through seas of trouble, that the millions of bayonets that guard the blessings we enjoy, stand between you and them! But enough! Welcome, General! Thrice welcome to the State of Georgia!"

After this ceremony of welcome General Lafayette descended from his carriage and shook hands with a vast multitude of children, among whom I enjoyed the honor. The General was lame for life on account of a wound received during the Revolution, at the Battle of Brandywine. He was dressed in a plain suit of black, his height was about five feet nine inches, and his hand soft.
I was also present when General Lafayette laid the corner stone of the Greene monument, erected in honor of Gen. Nathaniel Greene, of the Revolution, in the city of Savannah. The squadron of cavalry which attended these ceremonies was made up of companies from McIntosh county, Liberty county and the Savannah Huzzars. These three companies were commanded by sons of Liberty county. Capt. West from McIntosh county, Capt. Law, afterwards the distinguished Judge Win Law, of Savannah, and Capt. Wm. Maxwell, who succeeded Capt. Jos. Jones, who commanded the Liberty County Independent Troops during the war of 1812-1815. I heard Capt. Wm. Maxwell say that Achille Murat, nephew of the great Napoleon and son of Marshal Murat, was present in Savannah during these stirring scenes. Capt. Maxwell, by seniority of captaincy, was made Colonel Commanding on the occasion. At a grand dinner given to Lafayette on the 30th of March, an Ode of Welcome, composed by a literary gentleman, the father of Judge Richard H. Clark, of Atlanta, was delivered to General Lafayette.

He left soon after for Milledgeville, Ga.

General Lafayette at the time of this visit was sixty-eight years of age. He returned to France and died in 1834.

As a token of appreciation of the American people, the Congress of the United States some years prior to his death voted an appropriation of $200,000 and 24,000 acres of land from the public domain. General Lafayette was peculiarly the friend of General Washington, who loved him with more than ordinary affection and friendship, and during his incarceration in the dungeons of Olmutz, his son, Geo. Washington Lafayette, was invited, and made his home at Mount Vernon.

I also had the pleasure of once meeting that grand old man, President Andrew Jackson. After my graduation at the State University in 1836, I was permitted by my father to visit the North on a pleasure tour. Returning, I stopped over in Washington City to see the Capitol of the Nation. I called on the Hon. John Forsyth of Georgia, then Secretary of State. Mr. Forsyth was, you will remember, our Minister to Spain, and made the purchase of Florida from that Government in 1820, the change of flags taking place in 1821. In person, Mr. Forsyth was very striking, about five feet eight inches in height and the very picture of health with a bright and clear complexion. I was accompanied by a beautiful young lady who had come South under my care on her way to one of the leading families of Virginia. We were received most cordially, due largely, I think, to the beautiful young lady on my arm. We expressed a desire to meet President Jackson. Mr. Forsyth promptly said, "Call on me at 10 o'clock Monday morning and I will take you over and introduce you myself." Contemplating a trip to Mount Vernon, sixteen miles away, the weather being cold, the roads muddy and the days short, we found we could not wait until 10 o'clock and make the journey, so determined to call on the President anyway.

We were received at the White House, and in a very short time the President sent word down to usher us into his sitting-room. He rose and met us cordially, and when I apologized for calling so early (8 o'clock), he said, "No apology is needed. No ceremony is necessary in calling on me." He then walked to the mantelpiece, and, taking up a corn-cob pipe with a cane stem, proceeded to fill it with tobacco and take a comfortable smoke, while he chatted pleasantly with us. Georgia had gone that year with the Whigs, and the President spoke of it, saying, "Your State, sir, I am sorry to see, has gone wrong this year." I assented, I being a Democrat—because I could not help it, and have always been. We soon left and made the journey to George Washington's home and tomb. Gen. Jackson has been regarded as a rough man. He had many gentle ways, a devoted husband, and in the close of life his character softened greatly. On a visit to Nashville years after, I had the pleasure of meeting and talking with his pastor there, and learned many facts of the closing years of his life and his growth in Christian graces.

The great John C. Calhoun, Hon. Henry Clay and Hon. Daniel Webster also lived in our time. Mr. Calhoun was in many respects the greatest of the three. I had with him a personal acquaintance. He was born in the Abbeville District, S. C., 18th March, 1782, and died in Washington, March 31st, 1850.

In my humble judgment, about the greatest Governor of Georgia I have known, was Gov. Geo. M. Troup. His methods were vigorous and his character decided and his integrity beyond question.

He was governor, as I have mentioned, when General Lafayette visited Georgia in 1825, and retired from the gubernatorial chair in 1827. After enjoying all the honors Georgia could bestow, he returned on account of feeble health to private life, and died about thirty years ago.

No governor of Georgia with whom I have had the honor of an acquaintance stands higher in my estimation for true excellence of character than the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens. His life was spent in stirring times, and in every position in life he ran equal to all that was required of him. We were in college together, not in the same class, but during our college course. We met often in debate, and the promise of the future was budding then. Throughout life our relations were of the friendliest nature, and when in 1883 he died, I was selected by the family to conduct his funeral and deliver the address. He was the second governor of Georgia to die in the gubernatorial chair, the other being Governor Wm. Rabun, who died on the 24th of October, 1819. Governor Stephens' funeral was one of the largest ever held in Georgia, the troops of the State coming from many cities to take part.

These are a few casual incidents of my life, which of itself has not been very eventful. I have had the honor through the grace of God to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ for over fifty-two years and have served in that time many charges throughout the State, and trust through God that my labors have been somewhat blest, and to Him I give the glory for all things.

I must return thanks to this body for the honor accorded me in this invitation to address you. I am glad of the opportunity, though speaking in feebleness and blindness. For each of you I cherish a personal regard and pray for you all the blessings of an all-wise and overruling Providence.
